GENERAL SUMMARY.

1. The rain-fall of the year 1870—71 was fully equal to the ordinary average, and was generally seasonable throughout the Province, except in some talooks of the Kolár District, which suffered from an almost entire failure of the early monsoon rains, though the fall in other parts of the same district was as copious and favorable as could have been desired.

2. The harvest was generally a most luxuriant one, and the price of grain of all kinds fell to a point which brought a full supply of good and wholesome food within the means of the poorest classes of the community. These low prices, which generally still obtain, though the prospects of the present harvest are reported* to be very unfavorable in a considerable portion of the Province, have, however, been productive of loss to the agricultural classes, who in some instances have experienced a difficulty in the disposal of the produce of their fields, without submitting to a heavy sacrifice, while none have realized the large profits to which the high prices of late years had accustomed them. There can, however, be no question of the great benefit to the mass of the population, and therefore to the country at large, of the ample supplies of cheap food with which the Province has thus been favored by a bountiful Providence.

* P. S. The abundant rain that has fallen since these remarks were written has effected a marked improvement in agricultural prospects which may now be said to be generally favorable. 16th October 1871.

3. The state of the public health during the year under report was not generally unfavorable, though the country was not altogether free from epidemics, the Bangalore and Kolár Districts having been visited by cholera, which lasted in the latter for upwards of six months, while a malarious fever of aggravated type prevailed to a serious extent in some talooks of the Bangalore District subsequent to the close of the monsoon.

4. The collection of vital statistics was carried out from 1st July 1870, under the system †ordered by the Government of India, and the mortuary returns for the six months included between that date and the close of the year place the mortality during that period at 33,948 for the whole Province, and assuming the same number of deaths for the first half of the year, at 67,896 for the entire year. This gives a death rate of 16·53 per mille, which is considered to be far too favorable, the mortality from fever alone in many parts of the Province being notoriously excessive.

5. The revenue for the year under all heads aggregated in round numbers Rs. 1,06,00,000, against Rs. 1,07,00,000 for 1869—70, and the expenditure similarly Rs. 1,02,15,000, against Rs. 1,07,52,749, shewing a decrease of revenue of Rs. 1,00,000, and a surplus of receipts over expenditure for the past year of Rs. 3,85,000.

£ 1,060,000.

£ 38,500.

6. The trade returns are not reliable, and it is impossible to state with any pretension to accuracy what was the total value of exports and imports, or of home manufactures for the whole Province. These returns, however, in the case of one of the three divisions in which the most care has been bestowed on the subject, furnish the following figures for that division, viz :—

		Rs.
£ 434,887.	Value of Exports ..	43,48,871.
£ 1,158,499.	„ Imports ..	1,15,84,989.
£ 620,248.	„ Manufactures ..	62,02,478.

The returns for the previous year gave the aggregate value of exports and imports for the whole Province as Rs. 3,58,00,000, and in the absence of more reliable information, this amount may be assumed as an approximate estimate under this head.

£ 3,580,000.

7. The criminal returns shew an increase of 2,313 offences, or 12·7 per cent, as compared with the previous year, the total number being 20,473. There was a decrease of offences against the State and public, and the increase consisted of crimes against the person and property and offences of a minor class. Under the head of murder there were 62 cases against 48 in 1869—70.

8. No change was made in the Police arrangements of the Province during the year, and the reformed system continued to be in force only in the Bangalore District, its proposed extension to the rest of the Province having been deferred pending further consideration as to its entire adaptation to the circumstances of the Mysore State, on which point a special report has been lately submitted to the Government of India.

9. The reformed Police in the Bangaloro District, including the Town and Cantonment, numbered 1,011 men of all ranks, the gross authorized charge for the same under all heads being Rs. 1,55,066. The cost of the force averaged the annual rate of three annas nine pies per head of the population, the number being in the proportion of one constable to 652 persons and to 2·56 square miles. The actual expenditure during the year fell short, however, of the authorized expenditure by Rs. 13,462, making the actual cost per head of population three annas and five pies.

d. 5¾

The unreformed Police of the remaining seven districts numbered 5,865, maintained at a cost of Rs. 3,77,814, being at the annual rate of 1 a. 9 p. per head of the population, and in the proportion of one policeman to 588 persons and 5 square miles.

In addition to the above, the village Police numbered 14,000 persons; but their general condition is one of great inefficiency.

10. With regard to the operations of the Police—in the Bangaloro District, 68·3 per cent of cognizable cases were brought to trial, and of persons arrested about 85·7 per cent were convicted In the rest of the Province the proportion of convictions to arrests was only 24·6 per cent, shewing clearly, in this respect at least, the great superiority of the working of the revised system. The results were most unfavorable in the Ashtagram Division, in which the rate of convictions was only 12·5 per cent of arrests, and least so in the Nagar Division, in which it reached 37·7. The total percentage of convictions to arrests for the whole Province, including the Bangalore District, was 29·36, shewing that excepting in that district, the Police must have made many unnecessary arrests, and that the Magistrates did not exercise sufficient discretion in issuing processes for the apprehension or attendance of accused parties.

11. In the Judicial Department the proceedings of the Criminal Courts during the past year were not as satisfactory as could be desired, and the working of those of the Subordinate Magistrates is stated by the Judicial Commissioner to require a closer supervision on the part of the Superior Courts than has hitherto been exercised. The pending file at the close of the year was moderate, and the defects that have been brought to notice will doubtless be rectified by due care and attention on the part of the Superior Courts.

12. The Civil Courts were freely resorted to, the number of suits instituted (20,531) being 3,699, or 22 per cent, in excess of that of the previous year. The aggregate value of the property in litigation was Rs. 2,098,986, the average value of each suit being Rs. 103-14-6. The average duration of suits was excessive, being 28·77 days, though there was an improvement in this respect of 4 days on the average of the previous year. Appeals decreased from 884 in 1869 to 649 or 26·5 per cent in the year under report. The sales of property in execution of decrees amounted to nearly 3½ lacs.

13. The total number of prisoners in the jails of the Province during the year was 5,205, being 87 less than in 1869. The daily average number was 1,619 as compared with 1,795 in the previous year. The mortality was ·73 per cent, against 1·76 in 1869. The gross cost per prisoner was Rs. 97—12—6, the estimated value of the labor of the prisoners and their average actual cash earnings being Rs. 39—10—5 and Rs. 3—6—11 per head respectively.

14. The following Acts of the Legislative Council of India were extended to the Province during the past year.

Act VII	of 1870,	The Court Fees' Act.
Act X	„	The Land Acquisition Act.
Act XXIII	„	The Indian Coinage Act.
Act XXVII	„	An Act to amend the Indian Penal Code.

15. The number of Government educational institutions of all classes was 97 more than in 1869—70. The total number of schools in the Province of all descriptions was 2,443, affording education to 43,307 pupils as compared with 38,960 pupils in the previous year. The progress of the hóbli (sub-talook) schools during the year was satisfactory, and the scheme for the establishment of this class of schools throughout the Province is fast approaching completion. The prejudices that up to a very recent period existed against female education are daily passing away, and excellent work is already being done in the Government and Mission female schools, at which 2,313 girls were receiving instruction during the past year. On the whole, the progress and prospects of education are very encouraging.

16. The outlay on all public works during the year was Rs. 16,75,970. £ 167,597

17. The new works included four talook cutcherries, a civil hospital and dispensary, two school houses, several anché (local post) houses, Police stations and choultries, and the enclosure of certain Christian burial grounds. The new jail at Shimoga was almost completed, and additions were made to the Mysore Jail, and the school houses at Kolár and Hassan.

18. In the Irrigation Department the Srírámadévara anicut on the Hémávati river and the Márchalli anicut on the Lakshamanatírtha river were satisfactorily finished. Several important channels have been brought under re-construction or repair, and the survey of the great Márikanavé project has been completed. The re-construction and repair of a large number of the numerous tanks studding the country was carried on as usual. The charge of the river irrigation channels generally was transferred from the Revenue to the Irrigation Department during the year, a change which promises to have satisfactory results.

19. Under the head of communications, the completion of the unfinished portion of the road connecting Bangalore with Mysore viâ the Kánakánahalli valley, was taken in hand, and a commencement was made on the system of roads it is proposed to carry out in the district of Nagar, which is at present isolated from the want of proper communications with the surrounding country. Fair progress was made with the line connecting the southern districts of Mysore with the Wynád viâ Gundlupété, and several new roads of more or less local importance were completed, while others were commenced on. The repair of the existing roads was duly carried out, the minor lines being kept in fair trafficable order and the main ones fully up to first class standard. The condition of the roads generally throughout the Province was very satisfactory. The Sakalésapura bridge on the Hémávati river was completed and opened for traffic, the parapets of the fine bridge at Harihara, over the Tungabhadra river, were nearly finished, and many smaller useful works under this head were constructed.

20. Due attention continued to be paid to the planting of avenues along all the lines, and fair progress was made in this respect.

21. Under the head of miscellaneous public improvement, many useful works were carried out from municipal funds in the towns of Bangalore, Mysore, Hassan and Shimoga, and measures have been taken to improve the sanitary condition of many of the district towns.

22. The preliminary investigations and surveys of the most promising lines radiating from Bangalore to the chief centres of commerce in the surrounding districts—required in view to the selection of the most suitable line for the extension of the Railway System in Mysore, were carried out during the past year under the orders of the Government of India ; and after full enquiry and consideration, the line from Bangalore to Mysore was determined on as that most likely to prove successful, and its complete survey, with preparation of the necessary estimates, has been in progress since the close of the year. The proposed line will be on the 3′ 3″ gauge, and the cost of its construction will be borne by the Mysore State. Its length is estimated at 87½ miles, and as there are no serious obstacles to retard its speedy construction, it is anticipated that, if finally sanctioned, it will be completed in between three and four years from the time of its commencement.

The expenditure on the preliminary surveys during the past year was Rs. 53,697. £ 5,370.

The Bangalore Branch of the Madras Railway, of which about 85 miles fall within the limits of this Province, worked satisfactorily during the past year.

23. The operations of the Forest Department were carried on in a generally successful and satisfactory manner during the year under report. The gross revenue realized, including value of stock remaining at the end of the year, was Rs. 4,06,512, and the total outlay Rs. 1,47,574, the net revenue being Rs. 2,58,938. The State forests in Mysore cover an area of 428 square miles, and the establishment of sandal-wood reserves and fuel plantations for the railway was in progress; 1,200 acres of land for the former and 4,270 for the latter purpose respectively were taken up during the year, and partially enclosed and prepared for planting, and arrangements are being made for the appropriation of much more extensive areas with the same object.

£ 40,651.
£ 25,893.

24. The question of the district forests and the ordinary fuel tracts of the country is in a most unsatisfactory condition in Mysore, the entire want of a proper system of conservation or care of these essentials to the comfort and convenience of the people having resulted in their almost absolute clearance in a large portion of the Province. Steps have been recently taken to check the indiscriminate waste of the resources of the country under these heads; but the destruction has been so great and general, and the measures that will be required to provide adequately for the wants of the people in this respect are of so important and extensive a character, that it is considered they can only be properly carried out under the direction of the Officers of the Forest Department, and the transfer of the control of the district forests to that Department has accordingly been recommended to the Government of India.

25. Much has yet to be done to place the sanitary condition of the Province on a satisfactory footing, though, as already stated, fair progress has been made in this respect at the principal stations and in the larger district towns.

The existing Government hospitals and dispensaries, nine in number, are most useful, and do excellent work; but they are quite inadequate for the requirements of so large a Province with a population of upwards of four millions, amongst whom fever of a serious kind is notoriously constantly prevalent, and numbers its victims by thousands annually. The extension of dispensaries to those parts of the country where they are most urgently required, has for some time engaged the attention of the Government, and the requisite measures with this object will be adopted as soon as the services of duly qualified medical subordinates can be obtained for the purpose. The number of patients who received relief at the existing medical institutions during the past year was 76,540, or 4,000 in excess of that in the previous year.

26. Registration of deaths has been carried out under a new system, in accordance with the orders of the Government of India, since 1st July 1870, and the results are doubtless much more accurate than previously. Considerable improvement may, however, be still looked for in this respect. The registration of births has been commenced in Bangalore and Mysore.

27. The improvement of the water supply at Bangalore, and some other towns has engaged attention, and a project with this object for the former place was completed during the past year and approved by the Government of India. The want of funds has, however, prevented any steps being taken to carry it out.

28. Vaccination was carried on satisfactorily during the year under report; 96,570 persons were vaccinated, of whom 89·03 per cent were so successfully.

29. Revenue settlement operations were in progress in five districts, and included during the year, the measurement of 1,015,756 acres, and the classification of 526,568 acres. The operations have as yet only extended to 24 out of the 83 talooks of the Province, of which the settlement of 8 only has been fully completed.

30. The inám settlement was also in operation during the year, and the enquiries of its officers extended to the cases of 18,550 inám holdings. The proceedings of this settlement have as yet extended to 28 only of the 83 talooks of the Province, and are completed and closed in 6 only, in which the inám enquiries followed the revenue survey and settlement. The proceedings were complete in the remaining 22 talooks so far as the inám enquiries were concerned; but the final disposal of the ináms concerned is deferred, pending the survey measurement of the talooks.

35. The Province of Mysore has no political relations except with the British Government. The progress of the Young Chief, Mahárája Chámarájéndra Wadiyer Bahadúr, has been in all respects most satisfactory during the year under report, and the course of education adopted for him by the Guardian, Lieutenant-Colonel Malleson, and carried out under his own personal direction, promises to be as successful in its results as could be desired.

36. Mr. L. Bowring, C. S. I., having resigned the Chief Commissionership from the 11th August 1870, after an administration of the Province of nearly eight years, Colonel R. J. Meade, C. S. I., Agent, Governor General for Central India, and who had been officiating as Chief Commissioner for the previous six months, was permanently appointed his successor.

R. J. MEADE,
Chief Commissioner.

GENERAL REPORT

ON THE

ADMINISTRATION OF MYSORE,

FOR 1870—71.

PART I.

PHYSICAL, POLITICAL AND FISCAL GEOGRAPHY.

A.—PHYSICAL GEOGRAPHY.

1. AREA.—The Province of Mysore lies between 11°36 and 15°0 north latitude, and 74°42 and 78°37 east longitude. Its extreme breadth from east to west is 230 miles, and its extreme length from north to south is 190 miles. Its area has been variously computed in the absence of any systematic survey of the Province. As the result of a rough topographical survey carried out by Colonel Mackenzie between 1800—1807, the extent has been generally recorded as 27,000 square miles. The operations of the revenue survey which is now in progress, as well as the greater attention devoted to the definition of areas of the several districts, have however resulted in a large excess being found over former computations, and the area of the Province may be more accurately entered as 30,000 square miles. In the survey of six talooks in one district alone (Chituldroog), an excess of 136 square miles has been found, and a similar result occurs, more or less, in every talook now accurately surveyed for the first time.

2. In Appendix I. A, 1, the sum of the areas recorded for the past year for all the districts is shewn to be 29,717 square miles. Out of this 9,019 square miles, or rather less than one-third, are shewn as cultivated and 4,600 square miles, or one-sixth nearly, as culturable, though waste. Out of the total of 20,697 square miles comprised under the head "waste," one-fifth only is culturable.

3. In the Chituldroog District, (the only one completely surveyed and settled,) out of 2,124,427 acres which comprise the area of the district, 780,000 acres, or upwards of one-third, were under cultivation during the past year. Of this extent, 9,822 acres were irrigated from private tanks and wells, and 21,322 acres from Government tanks. Out of the unculturable area, 263,962 acres consist of grazing lands.

4. The unappropriated culturable waste at the disposal of the State is shown to be 3,098,111 acres, of which 153,399 acres have been brought under cultivation during the past year. These figures are necessarily subject to much qualification, pending the completion of the survey over the whole Province.

5. COMMUNICATIONS.—There are no rivers which are used for navigable purposes. The roads, which are for the most part supported from local funds, aggregate 2,857¼ miles in length. There are 48 miles of railway consisting of the Bangalore Branch of the south western Railway, which enters the Province from the direction of Madras.

6. CHARACTER OF SURFACE.—The details under this head are entered in Appendix I. A, 2.

7. CLIMATE.—The means of obtaining accurate meteorological statistics are as yet very imperfect. At Bangalore alone, an Observatory has been established under the supervision of the Government Astronomer at Madras. At the head quarters of districts, observations are also taken, but the arrangements made in respect of them at present are not such as to ensure the necessary degree of accuracy.

8. Rain-fall.—The total rain-fall at Bangalore for the year 1870—71, was registered at inches 31, cents 9. Of this 10 inches fell in one month—October, and inches 16, cents 72 during the south west monsoon months of June, July, August and September.

9. Taking the returns for the Province which, as before remarked, are not very reliable, the following results are exhibited, in comparison of the past with the preceding year.

	1869—70.		1870—71.
	Inches.	Cents.	Inches.	Cents.
From January to May...	4	20	5	22½
„ June to September	19	43	90	97½
„ October to December	6	72	10	39

10. Temperature.—The readings of the thermometer and rain register at the Bangalore Observatory for the past official year give the following results. The mean temperature was 73½°. The maximum was attained during the hot months of April and May when the maximum thermometer read 93° and 94° respectively, and the minimum 68° and 66.° From June to September, the maximum ranged from 81° to 82,° the minimum during the same period being 64° and 65.° In December, the maximum readings sunk to 78° and the minimum to 56.°

11. Winds.—The winds are subject to but little variation, and are regulated by the south west and north east monsoons, respectively. From November to March, the north east winds prevail with little or no intermission, and the south west winds are similarly prevalent from June to August. During the months of April and May, and those of September and October, the winds are variable at the change of the monsoons.

B.—POLITICAL RELATIONS WITH NATIVE STATES.

12. There are no Native States in political relation with this Administration.

13. The education of the Young Mahárája, Chámarájéndra Wadiyer Bahadúr, has made satisfactory progress during the year, under the supervision of the Guardian.

14. Colonel G. B. Malleson being compelled by ill-health to proceed on medical certificate to Europe, was relieved of his duties on the 27th March 1871, by Mr. J. D. Gordon, C. S. I., who had been appointed by the Government of India to act as Guardian during Colonel Malleson's absence.

15. At the invitation of His Excellency the Viceroy, some members of the Royal family of Mysore, namely, the Mahárája's brother and two cousins, were conveyed by Colonel Malleson to Calcutta, in December 1870, and from the success which attended this first attempt to induce a desire for travel among this class, and from the great pleasure and interest felt by the youths in the voyage by steamer from Madras to Calcutta, and in the new sensations and reflections experienced by them in visiting for the first time cities larger than Mysore, it is hoped that much benefit will result.

C.—CIVIL DIVISIONS OF TERRITORY.

16. Administration Divisions.—For administrative purposes, the Province is divided into three Divisions, which are again subdivided into eight Districts :—

1. Nandidroog Division comprises—
   1. Bangalore District.
   2. Kolár do
   3. Toomkoor do
2. Ashtagram Division comprises—
   1. Mysore District.
   2. Hassan do
3. Nagar Division comprises—
   1. Shimoga District.
   2. Kadoor do
   3. Chituldroog do

17. The average area of each Division may be roughly stated at 10,000 square miles, and that of each District 3,714 square miles. The *83 talooks (corresponding with Tahsíls in North India) have an average area of 358 square miles each.

*Excluding the Jahagír Talook of Yelandúru in the Mysore District.

18. There are 35,218 villages in the Province, of which however 11,785 have become depopulated. Of that number 31,941 are sarkár or Government villages, 836 are villages which have been granted free of assessment, and the remaining 2,440 villages are those which bear a permanently fixed assessment (known as Káyemgutta), or have been granted on easy rates of assessment.

19. Principal Towns.—The principal Towns in the Province are :—

Bangalore	with a population	including	that of the Cantonment of	130,348
Mysore	do	do	do	50,135

20. Land Revenue.—The revenue from land during the past year was Rs. 72,91,498, and the gross revenue Rs. 1,05,66,657 (fractions omitted.)

D.—POPULATION.

21. The population of the Province, as shewn from the returns of the experimental census taken on the 8th December 1870, was 4,273,544. This gives an increase of 216,778 over the results obtained in the previous year from the ordinary returns furnished by the village accountants. Of the total population, 617,301, or upwards of one-sixth, are classed as agriculturists.

22. The following return shews the numbers of the several classes of which the population is composed. The figures cannot, however, be relied upon as accurate.

Christians.	Europeans	4,147
	East Indians and others of mixed descent	2,797
	Natives	7,991

Other Classes	... ...	594
	Total.....	4,273,544

23. The ratio of population to area, computed for the whole Province, is 144 persons to the square mile. The proportion for individual districts is given below:—

Bangalore	District	244 per square mile.
Kolár	do	287
Toomkoor	do	146
Mysore	do	208

E.—FISCAL.

24. SURVEY AND SETTLEMENT.—A revenue survey and settlement of all land held under Government, though for many years previously in contemplation, was commenced in 1863-64. The system adopted was that which has been pursued with much success in the Bombay Presidency. The several operations of survey, classing and settlement are carried on successively by separate parties under the supervision of one Head, viz., the Survey and Settlement Commissioner. The extension of the survey and settlement throughout the Province was estimated to occupy 20 years.

25. The actual area measured up from the commencement of survey operations in 1863—64 up to the close of the last season (31st October 1870), was 5,160,192 acres, or about 8,191 square miles, of which 325,376 acres were classified. The cost for both survey and classifying aggregated Rs 8,67,502. The proportion of work performed in each year as well as the cost per acre, is subjoined.

Years.	Acres measured.	Acres classed.	Cost per acre of both operations.
			Rs. As. P.
1863—64	291,595	200,176	0 3 2·75
1864—65	507,288	248,244	0 2 9·50
1865—66	817,304	454,620	0 2 4·
1866—67	743,041	484,996	0 2 8·75
1867—68	789,789	669,521	0 2 9·90

1869—70	1,015,716	526,567	0 3 9·67
Total.....	5,160,192	3,253,769

26. Out of a total of 83 talooks in the Province, 24 only have as yet been taken in hand, and the measurement, classification and assessment of *8 talooks have been fully completed; of the remaining 16 talooks, 9 have been surveyed, and the measurement of the others is in progress.

Decrease. .	..	...	...	2,526		154,077	...	4,711

28. The total cost of all operations during the season under report was Rs. 2,04,069-0-6 as compared with Rs. 1.82,078-11-3 in the previous year ; the excess being due to the increased strength of the Survey establishments at work during the past year.

29. The measuring establishments have been employed during the past year to a greater extent than previously in tracts abounding in rice and garden cultivation, and where the holdings are smaller in area than in districts where dry crop cultivation chiefly prevails. The difficulty of measuring was thus increased by the greater irregularity in the form of the holdings, each field or garden having to be reduced to numerous "waslas," (the vernacular term for rectangular or trapezoid figures) into which a field is broken up for purposes of measurement. This drawback combined with natural obstacles explains why, with increasing establishments and a considerably larger number of fields measured, the increase in the area measured was comparatively small.

30. In the classing branch also, while an increase is shewn in the number of fields operated upon, there was an actual decrease in acres as contrasted with the results of the previous season.

31. Detailed particulars will be found in Appendix I. E, 1.

32. VARIETIES OF TENURE.—The land tenures in the Province may be broadly divided into Sarkár or Government lands, and Inám lands.

33. Sarkár lands are held either on kandáyem or a fixed assessment or on batáyi* except in the settled talooks where the term of the settlement is fixed at 30 years. Kandáyem lands are held direct from Government on annual leases or pattás. These pattás are in practice renewed every five years or whenever changes occur in holdings.

* This term signifies the temporary occupation of Government lands, the cultivators of which pay no assessment and share the produce with the Government.

34. The batáyi system, though still greatly prevalent in the Nandidroog Division, is gradually being extinguished, and will disappear with the completion of the survey settlement in each talook.

35. Inám lands have not been granted subsequent to the assumption of the country except to a very small extent, under the rules which entitle the builder of a chatram or other charitable and public institution, to the grant of land of prescribed dimensions, on jódi or light assessment.

36. The following are the principal of the inám tenures:—

1. Sarvamányem villages—granted rent free.
2. Ardhamányem villages—granted at half the ordinary assessment.
3. Jódi villages and lands—granted on a light assessment.
4. Káyemgutta villages—granted on a fixed annual assessment in perpetuity.
5. Kodigi or kerebandi lands—granted on a permanent light assessment in consideration of services rendered in the construction or restoration of tanks, or on condition of their being maintained.

37. Further details under this head will be found in Appendix I. E, 2.

38. General Revenue.—The revenue demand for the year 1870-71, excluding that which related to local funds, amounted to Rs. 1,05,66,657 2—7 which, added to the previous year's balance outstanding on the 31st March 1870, viz., Rs. 15,78,662—7—8, made up the aggregate demand to Rs. 1,21,45,319—9—10.

39. Collections.—The amount collected during the official year was Rs. 91,36,198—3—3, being in the proportion of 75 per cent of the total demand. This proportion would have been larger but for the measure introduced during the preceding year, and described in paras 200 and 201 of the Administration Report for that year, by which the "Khista" or instalments of revenue, which were formerly payable before the end of March in each year, have been extended generally to the month of May. The official or financial year is thus to be distinguished for the revenue or fiscal-year.

40. Outstanding Balances.—The amount outstanding at the close of the official year was Rs. 30,09,121—6—7. The returns received up to the 30th June 1871 shew however that, of that sum, Rs. 22,46,780—14—9 had been subsequently collected within the revenue year, leaving a balance of Rs. 7,62,340—7—10.

41. Details of Revenue.—The following is a comparative statement of the revenue under all heads, for the past and previous years :—

Items.	1869—70.	1870—71.
Land Revenue	72,69,272 9 0	72,91,497 15 7

	1,04,79,453 13 9	1,05,76,857 2 7
Net increase Rs.....		87,203 4 10

42. The causes of increase and decrease as above shewn under the various heads will be briefly explained.

43. LAND REVENUE.—The land revenue settlement for the year amounted to Rs. 72,91,497—15—7 as compared with Rs. 72,69,272-9-0 of the preceding year, the excess being Rs. 22,225—6—7.

44. The items of increase consist mainly of the proceeds from the annual sale of the grazing rights in the hulgával or pasture lands, especially in the Nagar Division, of the receipts from "hálat" or excise duty on coffee, which is incorporated in the land revenue, and of the results of the inám settlement in the imposition of quit-rent on inám lands.

45. A comparison of the returns of dry land under cultivation exhibit an increase of Rs. 26,635 of assessment over the previous year, owing to fresh land taken up. On the other hand there is a decrease in the extent of wet land in occupation, owing to relinquishments of such land chiefly in the Toomkoor District from failure of water supply.

46. In the surveyed and settled talooks of the Nagar Division, the assessment of lands taken up during the year amounted to Rs. 18,519, against Rs. 10,356 assessment on lands resigned. In 1869-70 lands to the amount of Rs. 28,166 were resigned in the settled talooks, shewing that the people are getting more accustomed to the new survey rates. It is remarked that the survey settlement of a talook is generally attended at the outset by extensive resignation of holdings owing, in the opinion of the Superintendent of Nagar, to apprehensions of an enhancement of assessment; for, when the terms become known, the lands are usually taken up again. This view is, however, contested by the Survey Commissioner, who considers that the resignations of holdings is almost wholly due to the fall in prices of cereal produce, and the reaction from the over cultivation that was carried on under the stimulus of high prices up to 1866—67.

47. The following table shews the land revenue settlement for the several Divisions comparatively for the two years:—

Divisions.	1869—70.	1870—71.	Increase.	Decrease.
Nandidroog	29,42,759	29,10,087	...	32,672
Ashtagram	19,77,701	19,97,259	19,558	...
Nagar	23,48,812	23,84,151	35,339	...
Total.....	72,69,272	72,91,498	54,897	32,672
		Deduct Decrease.....		32,672
		Net Increase		22,225

48. Forests.—The revenue from forests amounted to Rs. 4,41,819-10-8, and exhibits an increase of Rs. 71,014-3-3 over the receipts of the previous year, due to larger sales of timber and sandalwood, as well as to the large proceeds obtained from the sale of minor forest products. Further details on this head are given in Section B. 2, Part III, of this Report.

49. Abkári.—The receipts under this head are subjoined.

	1870—71. Rs.	As.	P.
Toddy	5,12,971	12	4
Arrack	3,95,510	7	9
License fees	74,335	3	5

Total Rs.....	10,08,963	3	5
Receipts for 1869—70...	9,72,976	7	11
Net Increase Rs.	35,986	11	6

The increase was caused chiefly under the head of arrack.

50. Assessed Taxes.—The following are the items and the revenue derived from each, comprised under this head.

	1870—71. Rs.	As.	P.
Tax on Houses	1,13,887	1	10
„ „ Shops	86,472	15	4
„ „ Looms	75,818	3	4
„ „ Oil mills	13,292	15	3
„ „ Carts	7,148	0	0
Recoveries from previous year...	212	1	6
Total Rs....	3,24,831	5	3
Receipts for 1869—70...	3,36,984	5	8
Decrease Rs....	12,153	0	5

51. The decrease under this head is not actual, but has resulted from the transfer of a sum of Rs. 18,370 to the credit of the town municipalities at Mysore, Kolár and Shimoga. There was otherwise an increase of receipts from house tax and carts.

52. Houses.—The total number of houses in the Province is computed at 971,998, of which 126,410 only are subject to taxation, the remainder being exempted as the property of cultivating ryots, and of certain other privileged classes who, under the ancient usage of the country, have hitherto enjoyed an immunity from this tax. The tax on houses varies from annas 8 to Rs. 9 per annum, the average being Rs. 1, 2, 3, per house. Houses are classed for purposes of taxation into the following 4 classes;—1st, terraced; 2nd tiled; 3rd, mud-roofed; and 4th thatched.

53. Shops.—The total number of shops is computed at 26,042, of which 326 being the property of village headmen and other privileged classes are exempted from taxation. The shop tax varies from Rs. 2 to Rs. 25 per annum, and gives on the average Rs. 3¾ per shop.

54. Looms.—The number of looms is estimated at 40,370, of which 915 are exempted. The tax on each loom ranges from As. 8 to Rs. 4 per annum, giving on an average Rs. 1—14—0 per loom.

55. Oil Mills.—There are 3,279 oil mills, of which 24 are exempted. The rates vary from Rs. 3 to Rs. 15 per mill, giving an average of Rs. 4½ for each.

56. Customs.—The collections under the head are shewn in the following statement:—

Items.			1870—71.
1. Supári or betel nut	...	...	5,49,643	15	1
2. Tobacco ...	...	...	1,28,658	11	6

	Receipts for 1869—70....		8,62,243	14	3
	Increase.....		6,327	0	11

Of the above sum of Rs. 8,68,570—15—2, shewn as collections for the year, Rs. 81,283—0—6 were credited to municipalities, and a further sum of Rs. 37,109—14—4 was credited to the Sringári Jahagir and other inámdars on whose behalf the Government collects the custom dues. The amount actually credited to the general funds of the Province was therefore Rs. 7,57,210—15—1, and, as compared with the receipts for 1869—70, exhibits a decrease of Rs. 7,032—14—9. The decrease is found chiefly under the head of tobacco and supári, in respect of which items, there was a diminished export.

57. The cost of collection amounted to Rs. 38,808—8—10, being above 5 per cent.

58. Salt.—The revenue from salt is derived from fees levied on the earth salt pans, and amounted to Rs. 13,388—0—5, against Rs. 13,200—2—2 in 1869—70.

59. The following is the number of salt pans at work in the several divisions.

	No.
Nandidroog Division	1,065
Ashtagram do	473
Nagar do	1,073
Total.....	2,611

60. Opium.—The customs revenue from opium is credited to the proper head. The sum of Rs. 500 separately shewn under this head, represents the contract entered into for the sale of the drug, which is a monopoly.

61. Post Office, (Local).—The receipts from the "Anché" or local Postal Department amount to Rs. 41,250—5—4, and exhibit an increase of Rs. 1,275—10—3 over those of the previous year, owing chiefly to the withdrawal of the privilege previously enjoyed by officers of the Commission of franking private letters.

62. Law and Justice.—The items comprised under this head are as follow :—

	Rs.	As.	P.
Court fee stamps ...	1,50,988	4	0
Magisterial fines ...	53,225	3	6
Registration fees ...	23,319	11	11

Sale proceeds of Jail manufactures.	2,355	2	11
Realized from convict labor...	258	8	0
Miscellaneous	552	1	11
Total Rs.....	2,34,171	14	6

63. The other heads of revenue call for no notice here.

64. INAM SETTLEMENT.—An investigation and settlement of the numerous inám holdings in the Province was determined upon first in 1863, incidently with the introduction of the revenue survey and settlement. The preliminary rules then laid down afforded a sufficient guide to the operations of the Revenue Survey Department until 1866, when the Inám Commission was appointed. The rules then drawn up were subsequently modified, however, in consequence of the altered policy of the imperial Government in respect of the future of the State, and the Inám Commission did not fairly commence its work till 1868.

65. Principles of the Inám Settlement.—The ináms coming under the operations of the Commission are classified as follows :—

I. Grants or endowments towards the support of religious or charitable institutions.

II. Personal or subsistence grants.

III. Grants made by former Governments for services no longer required.

Village service ináms form an additional class, but the investigation into these will be made by the Revenue Survey Department.

66. In dealing with these tenures, two primary considerations are kept in view :—

1st. The competency of the granter, irrespective of the duration of the inám, and—

2nd. The duration of the inám, irrespective of the competency of the granter.

67. Under the first head, are determined the validity of grants made by the late Mahárája prior to the assumption of the country in 1831, and under the second, that of all ináms, by whomsoever granted, the duration of which has been for 50 years and upwards.

68. Subject to the above, the following are the principles on which the settlement is conducted.

I. When sannads have been granted by the late Mahárája or by his predecessors, and when they convey full powers of alienation and are hereditary, the ináms are treated as heritable and alienable property.

II. When sannads emanating as above do not convey full powers of alienation, the ináms may be enfranchised by payment of a quit-rent equal to one-eighth of the assessment of the tenure.

III. When sannads have been granted by incompetent persons and when they are less than 50 years' old, a compulsory quit-rent equal to one half of the assessment is imposed. But in doubtful cases and where there is a probability that the inám has been enjoyed for fully 50 years, the quit-rent to be imposed is one-fourth of the assessment.

69. Composition of the Inám Commission.—The Inám Commission is now composed of 1 Inám Commissioner, 1 Special Assistant, and 3 Assistants on whom devolves the preliminary work of registering the ináms, talook by talook, and of collecting all the materials for their settlement.

70. Operations of the Department.—The inám settlement has up to the present time been extended to 28 talooks, out of the 83 talooks in the Province. In six *talooks the inám settlement followed the survey settlement, and is fully completed. In the other talooks, the settlement of the inám has preceded that of the revenue survey, and is so far defective that the excess found in the survey measurement of the máms has yet to be dealt with before the issue of title deeds.

*Harihara.

71. 18,550 cases were registered by the Assistants during the year, and of these 12,630 required the review and confirmation of the Inám Commissioner.

72. Including 4,897 cases pending from the previous year, 17,527 cases were submitted for the disposal of the Inám Commissioner during the year. Of these, 11,658 were disposed of, leaving a balance of 5,869 cases undisposed of on the 31st March 1871.

73. Extent and Value of Inâms settled.—The results of the inâm settlement operations for the past and previous years comparatively are subjoined.

Inâms.	1869—70.	1870—71.
Extent in acres	86,540	1,08,260
Assessment recorded	57,168	76,332
Jôdi	20,732	20,343
Quit-rent	2,694	7,769

74. The increase in the amount of quit-rent arose from the circumstance that a larger number of personal inâms were enfranchised during the year than in 1869—70.

75. Resumptions.—The number of inâms resumed was larger than in the previous year; but their value and extent were smaller as shewn in the following figures.

	1869—70.	1870—71.
No. of Cases	345	532

Assessment	...Rs 3,746	Rs. 2,431
Jôdi	„ 1,692	„ 405
Net Value of Resumptions.....	2,054	2,026

76. Inâms struck off the List.—In 117 cases, inâms consisting either of unprofitable lands long ago abandoned, or of lands submerged or overgrown with jungle, were struck out.

77. The subjoined statement shews a satisfactory decrease in the number of personal inâms, the enfranchisement of which has been declined.

	1869—70.	1870—71.
Acres	435	119

99 per cent. of personal inâms have been enfranchised at the option of the holders.

78. Financial Results.—The financial results of the inâm settlement for the year are as follow:—

	Rs.
Quit-rent upon enfranchised inâms ...	7,770
Resumptions	2,026
Total Rs.....	9,796

79. Settlement of Muzaráyi Ináms.—The number of cases disposed of during the year 1870—71 is 114, against 206 of the preceding year.

80. The value of resumptions for the year 1870—71 is Rs. 89-1-11, against Rs. 170—2—0 in the previous year, the revenue derived from attached ináms amounted to Rs. 32—4—8, against Rs. 426—12—0 in 1869—70.

81. Only one case of a personal inám of the value of Rs. 26—4—0 per annum, restricted by the late Sir Mark Cubbon to one life, was eliminated altogether from the Muzaráyi list by payment once for all under Section X, Clause 5, of the Money Inám Rules, of a lump sum at 11½ years' purchase of Rs. 301—14—0.

82. The subjoined statement contains the results of the Muzaráyi settlement during the year.

84. Under the head of sáyer and abkári Rs. 50—9—0 were deducted, as compensation for the resumption of certain items granted under ancient sannads from inám villages held on jódi and quit-rent tenure.

85. The existence of a class of inâms styled "Dasvandam" was brought to notice by the Inâm Commissioner, and instructions were issued for the mode of dealing with them.

86. A Dasvandam inâm consists of a tenth-share of the land irrigated by the well or small tank, for the construction and maintenance of which the said share was granted in inâm. This description of inâm was assigned chiefly for up-keep of wells. It was ordered that these inâms should be confirmed on the existing tenure, excepting where the tank or well was found so dilapidated as to be useless and incapable of restoration, in which case their resumption was authorized.

87. Estimated Value of Various Inâms.—The value of the several descriptions of inâms as estimated on the formation of the Inâm Commission, was as follows:—

	Whole Villages.		Minor Inâms.

88. The number of inâms was calculated at 52,193; but this is exclusive of the "Stal" inâm, and merely represents the number of inâmdars, each of whom may possess inâms in more than one village or more inâms than one in the same village.

PART II.

PROTECTION.

A.—LEGISLATIVE.

89. The following Acts of the Legislative Council of the Government of India were extended to the Province by order of the Viceroy and Governor General in Council, during the year 1870—71.

Act VII of 1870,	The Court Fees' Act.
Act X of 1870,	The Land Acquisition Act.
Act XXIII of 1870,	The Indian Coinage Act.
Act XXVII of 1870,	An Act to amend the Indian Penal Code.

B.—JUDICIAL.

90. Courts of Justice.—There were at the close of the year 128 tribunals for the disposal of criminal, civil, and revenue cases in the Province, or about one tribunal to 31,068 persons. Of the officers who presided over these tribunals, 20 were European, (one Civil Covenanted, 16 Military and 3 Uncovenanted Officers) and 165 were natives.

91. Of the above Courts, 22 exercised criminal jurisdiction only, 10 exercised civil jurisdiction only, and 96 Courts exercised both civil and criminal jurisdiction. 22 Courts including the Court of the Judicial Commissioner and 3 Courts of Session exercised appellate as well as original jurisdiction in both civil and criminal cases.

92. Cost of the Courts.—The cost of these tribunals, inclusive of the Court of the Judicial Commissioner, are defrayed from the Mysore Revenue, and amounted to Rs. 9,60,304—1—4. Their net receipts from stamps yielded Rs. 1,85,297—15—10.

93. Description and Powers of Courts.—The following table shews the number of Courts and the powers exercised by the presiding officers.

1	Judicial Commissioner...	Powers of a High Court ...	Hears appeals from Superintendents and Deputy Superintendents, and special appeals from Judicial Assistants and Amildars; also exercises the powers of a Court of reference and revision.

94. CRIMINAL JUSTICE.—No. and Classification of Offences.—The following comparative statement shews the number of offences reported under each class during the past and previous years, and the percentage of increase and decrease.

	In 1869.	1870.	Increase.	Decrease.	Percentage of— Increase.	Decrease.

Total percentage of increase.....	...	...	...	...	12·7	...

with the exception of offences under Class I, there has been a general increase in all the other classes of offences reported during the year.

95. Class I.—Under this class there has been an increase in the following offences; passing, &c., bad coins, false evidence, false claims, and affrays.

The increase under the last head is particularly marked in the Nandidroog and Nagar Divisions, the cases reported having amounted to 113, as against 86 in 1869.

96. Class II.—The increase of offences reported in Class II chiefly falls under the heads of murder, culpable homicide, hurt, wrongful restraint and wrongful confinement, assault and criminal intimidation.

The cases of murder amounted to 62 against 48 in the previous year. The increase is more marked in the Ashtagram Division in which 29 cases of murder were reported.

A decrease of offences under this class has occurred chiefly under the head of grievous hurt, and offences relating to marriage.

97. Class III.—The increase of crime in Class III falls under the heads of robberry, cattle theft, dishonest misappropriation of property, mischief, and criminal trespass; under the last head the number of cases has increased from 500 to 1,068. The increase is general throughout the Province; but is more marked in the Nandidroog Division, where 579 cases occurred as against 208 of the previous year.

There has been a slight increase in the total number of dacoities reported; but there is a marked difference in the number of cases which occurred in each division as shewn below:—

	1870.	1869.
Ashtagram	28	22
Nandidroog	23	12
Nagar	33	46

The returns do not shew how many of these dacoities were committed by professional gangs and how many were simple cases falling under the technical definition of the crime.

98. Class IV.—In Class IV the chief increase has occurred in offences under the Police Act V of 1861; these have amounted to 1,535 as against 1,014 in 1869.

A marked decrease on the other hand is observable in offences against the "Forest Act," which were 49 against 124 in the previous year.

99. The Judicial Commissioner reports that the practice of kidnapping female children for immoral purposes does not exist in this Province.

100. Number of Offences brought to Trial.—Of the 20,473 offences reported, 19,172 were brought to trial during the year, or 93·64 per cent.

101. The subjoined table shews the number of persons brought to trial, and the general results for the past and preceding years.

	1869.	1870.

102. Of the persons brought to trial, 18,133 were arrested by the Police or sent in under warrants, and 23,788 attended on summons. The latter figure differs but little from that of the previous year; but there is a large increase in the number of persons arrested by the Police or under warrants, amounting to 7·471.

103. The percentage of convictions to acquittals is 29·36 only, as compared with 33·63 in 1869 and 38·64 in 1868.

104. The number of persons discharged without trial amounted to 9,945, as against 5,778 in the previous year.

The officiating Judicial Commissioner, Mr. Mangles, observes—"that the results generally shew that the Police have made many unneces-"sary arrests or have been unsuccessful in their prosecutions, and that the "magisterial authorities have not exercised a wise or careful discretion in "issuing process on the receipt of complaints, which are too frequently "instituted with the object of causing vexation and annoyance."

105. Cases disposed of by the Courts.—The proportion of cases disposed of by the various classes of tribunals, and the ratio of persons convicted to trial before each class of Court, is shewn in the following table.

106. Witnesses.—Consequent on the larger number of cases tried, the number of witnesses examined by the Courts have increased from 47,658 in 1869 to 58,382 during the past year; the average number of witnesses examined being 3 to each case.

107. Duration of Trials.—In the annexed table the average duration of criminal trials before the several classes of Courts, during the past and previous years, is contrasted.

108. Session Trials.—The number of cases disposed of by Session Judges has fallen from 178 in 1869 to 125 last year, and the number of persons involved from 362 to 311. The largest decrease occurred in the Nagar Division.

109. The result of the sessions trials and the percentage of convictions and acquittals is shewn in the following statement.:—

111. There has been a very large increase in the number of persons punished by fine only. With the exception of the increase in the number of sentences of transportation for life, there is a marked decrease in the severity of the terms of imprisonment adjudged. In the Nandidroog Division, in which the largest number of sentences of imprisonment were passed, 56 per cent of the persons sentenced to imprisonment were incarcerated for terms not exceeding 15 days, and 90 per cent for periods less than 6 months.

112. Fines.—During the year 10,378 persons were fined to the aggregate amount of Rs. 59,047, while in 1869, 8,407 persons were fined Rs. 55,875, or on an average Rs. 6—10—4, as against Rs. 5—11—0 in the past year.

113. Of the total fines imposed, a very large proportion, viz., Rs. 42,065 was realized, and of this, Rs. 3,280 were paid away as compensation. The percentage of realizations was 71·24, as against 65·47 of the previous year.

114. Trials with Assessors.—One hundred and ninety cases were tried during the year with the aid of assessors, in the Courts of the Magistrates with enhanced powers under Section 445 A, of Act VIII of 1869, and in the Sessions Courts, the Judges concurred with the assessors in 167 cases, and differed from them in 23 cases. The average number of assessors employed in each case was three.

115. Appeals.—The following table shews the number of appeals preferred, disposed of, and pending in the Courts of the Province during the year, as compared with the previous year :—

From Orders of—	Referred and pending.		Disposed.								Remaining for trial.

116. The proportion of appeals from the decisions of Session Judges and District Magistrates was about the same as last year; but the proportion of appeals from the sentences of the Sub-Magistrates have somewhat increased. Of 12,476 persons, however, who were convicted by the Magistrates and Sessions Judges, only 726 or 5·9 per cent appealed to the different appellate Courts, a result which, as remarked by the officiating Judicial Commissioner, speaks favorably for the character of the convictions generally.

117. Result of Appeals.—In appeals disposed of by the Judicial Commissioner, the orders in 82·14 per cent of the cases were confirmed. In appeals disposed of by the Sessions Judges, the orders were confirmed in 53·75 per cent of the cases, and in 29·20 per cent of the cases disposed of by the District Magistrates.

118. The general results of the criminal appeals preferred will be seen from the annexed table :—

119. Duration of Appeals.—The general average duration of appeals was 20·97 days, against 24 days in 1869. The average duration of appeals in the Ashtagram Division has slightly increased as compared with the previous year. In the Nagar Division it fell from 23 to 18 days, and in the Nandidroog Division it was still more favorable, being 15 days only. The duration of appeals in the Court of the Judicial Commissioner was reduced to 25·5 from 39 days in the previous year. In order to facilitate the despatch of criminal appeals, the officiating Judicial Commissioner has directed that the records of cases should, in every instance, be transmitted with the petitions of appeals received from prisoners confined in jails and lock-ups.

120. Sentences referred.—The number of cases which came before the Court of the Judicial Commissioner for confirmation of sentence of death during the year was 20, including 3 cases pending on the 1st January, and the number of persons in these cases sentenced to death, subject to the confirmation of the Court, was 31. Of these, the sentence of death passed upon 20 persons was confirmed, 3 persons were acquitted, and 4 cases involving 8 persons were pending at the end of the year.

121. Revision.—Thirty cases came before the Court of the Judicial Commissioner, as a Court of Revision. Of these, 29 cases were referred by Session Judges, and one was called for by the Court on perusal of the calendar. In 4 of these the orders were confirmed, 1 was reversed, and in 25 cases the sentences were quashed.

122. CIVIL JUSTICE.—Number of Original Suits instituted.—The aggregate number of civil suits instituted in all the Courts of the Province during the past year amounted to 20,534, being 3,699 in excess of the number filed during the previous year. There has been an annual increase in the number of suits instituted for the year past; but the larger proportionate increase of the past year, which has occurred in every district, is attributed by the Judicial Commissioner to the relief afforded to the poorer classes of suitors by the introduction of the Court Fees' Act, which came into force in this Province on the 2nd July 1870.

123. Courts of Talook Amildars.—In May 1869, the pecuniary jurisdiction of the Courts of Amildars was reduced from Rs. 300 to Rs. 50; this has not, however, had the effect of reducing the number of cases on their files, the number of suits filed in their Courts having amounted during the past year to 7,410, being 404 in excess of the number of the previous year.

124. Judicial Assistants' Courts.—Eight Courts of Judicial Assistants, viz., one for each district, were formed on the 1st of May 1869, and a 2nd Court was added to the Mysore District in October 1870. The total number of this class of Courts is therefore 9.

125. Number of Suits instituted in each District.—The number of suits instituted in each district of the Province and the percentage of increase, is shewn in the following comparative table:—

	1869.	1870.	Difference.	Percentage of increase.

127. Including 1,074 cases pending from the previous year, and 372 cases received by transfer and demand, the total number of suits for disposal during the year was 21,980, or 3,952 in excess of the number of the previous year. Of these, 20,543 including the transferred cases, were disposed of, leaving 1,437 suits pending at the close of the year. The number of suits disposed of in 1869 was 16,954, being less by 3,589 suits than the number disposed of in 1870.

128. The number of suits commenced, disposed of and pending at the close of the year in the various classes of Courts, is shewn below, as well as the average number of suits decided by the officers of each class of Court.

Of the 1,437 cases pending at the close of the year, 381 were pending over two months, and 95 over four months. The date of the oldest suit pending was the 19th July 1870.

129. Value of Suits.—The aggregate and average value of the suits disposed of is shewn in the following statement:—

130. Notwithstanding the great increase of litigation, suits of a value exceeding Rs. 500 have decreased from 641 to 596. Of the suits disposed of during the year, 12·47 per cent were valued at sums below Rs. 5; 28·26 per cent at sums below Rs. 20; 40·22 per cent at sums below Rs. 100, and only 19·05 per cent at sums above Rs. 100.

131. The following comparative statement shews the percentage of cases disposed of under the several heads indicated :—

	1869.	1870.
Decided on merits ... ... { For Plaintiffs	21·7	19·3
{ For Defendants	3·5	4·3
Plaints rejected or returned		3·7
Dismissed for default	30·7	9·5
Withdrawn with leave		3·2
Compromised	4·2	19·8
Decreed on confession	20·3	18·9
Decreed exparte	19·4	20·5
Dismissed exparte	...	0·5

132. It is noticed by the Judicial Commissioner that, notwithstanding the introduction of the Court Fees' Act, there has been a very large increase in the percentage of cases compromised; and that the large reduction in the percentage of cases dismissed for default and rejected, indicates that the more stringent procedure now in force, based on the provisions of Act VIII of 1859, has not been harshly enforced so as to cause hardship and injustice to the suitors.

133. Percentage of Original Suits decided.—The following comparative table shews the percentage of original suits decided by the several classes of Courts, and the average duration of contested and uncontested suits in each class of Courts.

No.	Officers.	1869.		1870.		Average Duration of Suits in days in 1870.

134. Duration of Suits.—The average duration of original suits, both contested and uncontested, was 28·77 days, against 32·96 days of the previous year.

135. BANGALORE SMALL CAUSE COURT.—Suits instituted and disposed of.—The number of suits instituted in the Bangalore Court of Small Causes during the year was 7,189, against 5,761 in the year 1869, and the value of the suits was Rs. 2,44,485 or Rs. 31,358 in excess of the previous year. The number of suits disposed of was 7,165, against 3,665 in the previous year at an average duration of 14 days; 920 of the above cases were disposed of in favor of plaintiffs and in 264 cases judgment was given for defendants, 490 suits were dismissed for default, 167 were withdrawn, 694 were decreed on confession, 1,874 were decreed exparte, and 2,756 were compromised.

136. Income and Expenditure of do.—The income of the Court derived from commission and fees during the year amounted to Rs. 31,514—8—10, which, after meeting the expenses of establishment, leaves a surplus.

137. Appeals.—There has been a decrease in the number of appeals preferred to the various Courts in the year 1870, as compared with the previous year.

138. The total number of appeals preferred in 1869 was 884, against 649 in 1870. Inclusive of 99 appeals pending from 1869, and two received by transfer, there were altogether 750 appeals for disposal; of these 683 were disposed of, and two were transferred, leaving 65 pending at the close of the year.

139. Of the total number disposed of, 33 were dismissed for default, in 394 cases the decrees were confirmed, and in 99 cases modified. In 104 cases the orders were reversed, and 53 cases were remanded.

140. The work of the several appellate Courts and the average duration of appeals in each are shewn below, comparatively, for the two past years:—

Appellate Courts.	Appeals, 1869.	Disposal of, 1870.	Average Duration of each Appeal. 1869. Days.	1870. Days.

Judicial Commissioner	208	160	54½	43
Total	737	683	39½	51

141. The following table shews the number of appeals preferred to the appellate Courts from each class of subordinate Courts, the ratio of appeals to decisions, the number of decisions affirmed, and ratio of affirmed to decided cases.

Appeals from the original decisions of—	No of appeals preferred.	Ratio of appeals to decisions.	No. of decisions affirmed.	Ratio of affirmed to decided.

Superintendents to Judicial Commissioner. ...	7	63·6	4	66·6
Special appeals from the decisions of Deputy Superintendents and Superintendents ... to Judicial Commissioner	147	28·1	90	62·0

142. A comparison with the figures of 1869 shews that a larger proportion of appeal cases were confirmed during the last year than in the previous year. The remanded cases were reduced in number from 70 to 53, while in 1868 the number of cases remanded was 138.

143. Execution Cases.—The aggregate value of decrees for which execution was applied for in the year amounted to Rs. 16,28,320.

144. The aggregate value of decrees completely executed was Rs. 4,09,401—12—11, and those partially executed was Rs. 2,80,884—0—6. Of the total amount realized by execution, Rs. 1,32,829—8—1 were recovered by sale of movable property, and Rs. 1,56,965—4—11 by sale of immovable, and Rs. 59,073—14—4 by imprisonment of debtors.

Registration.

145. The prescribed statistical return is given in Appendix II. B, 12. The total number of documents of all kinds registered in 1870—71 was 8,178, against 7,470 in the previous year.

146. Statistics of Compulsory and Voluntary Registration.—Of instruments relating to immovable property of 100 rupees and upwards, the registration of which was compulsory, under Section 17 of the Act, 6,086 were registered, being an increase of 575 over the number registered in 1869-70, and of instruments relative to a similar description of property the registration of which was voluntary, 1,619 were registered, against 1,465 in 1869-70.

147. Registration of Immovable Property.—In the compulsory and optional classes of documents affecting immovable property registered in 1870-71, there has been an increase of about 10½ per cent on the whole over the preceding year. The value of the property dealt with is reported to have been Rs. 32,65,531, in relation to which the registration fees levied amount to about 7 As. per cent.

148. Registration of Movable Property.—There has been a slight decline since 1869-70 in the number of documents relating purely to movable property, such as money bonds, personal contracts, &c. The value of the property concerned in these instruments is reported to have amounted to Rs. 1,72,935, the fees being at the rate of annas 9 and 2 pies per cent.

149. Unregistered Documents.—52 documents were registered on payment of penalty, against 35 in 1869-70. The amount of penalties levied was Rs. 629—8—0.

150. Specially registered Documents.—Special registrations under Section 52 declined from 330 in 1869-70 to 259 in the past year ; the decrease is probably due, to some extent, to the provisions of the Court Fees' Act (Schedule III), which cancelled the privilege of presenting on a stamp of one fourth the ordinary value, any plaint relating to claims based on specially registered documents.

151. Registration of Wills, &c.—The number of wills registered does not indicate a growing appreciation of the provisions of the Act ; 11 only were registered, the smallest number in any year, and only one cover was opened.

152. Memoranda of Court Decrees registered under Sections 41 and 42.—There has been a diminution of memoranda of decrees received under Section 41 ; but a considerable increase in the number of such documents registered under Section 42,—due to greater attention to the subject on the part of the Courts. Under the new Registration Act, (VIII of 1871) which has force in this Province from 1st September 1871, the registration of decrees and orders under both these sections is declared to be optional on the part of the persons claiming under them.

153. Refusals to register.—The number of orders of refusal to register was 202 during the past year as compared with 71 in 1869—70. Of the former number, 117 occurred in one District, Hassan, and related to one class of documents, coffee land grants, which had not been presented within the time prescribed.

154. The average of fees levied on each document (excepting memoranda of decrees, wills, &c.,) amounted to Rs. 1—14—3, against Rs. 2—0—4 in 1869—70.

155. The financial results of the year have been unprecedently favorable, the total collections amounted to Rs. 23,008—9—9, and the expenditure to Rs. 17,342—2—6, leaving a surplus of Rs. 5,666—7—3. Of this increase, a sum of Rs. 648 was obtained from the registration of coffee grants which, under the orders issued in August 1870, were required to be registered. The remaining increase is due to the larger number of documents of all kinds registered during the year.

156. The expenditure has also been curtailed by the substitution of fixed establishments in the Registry Offices, for the commission formerly allowed.

C.—PRISONS.

157. General Remarks.—There are in the Province 8 jails, and 85 lock-ups, the statistics of which will be found in Appendix II. C, Statements No. 1 to 22.

158. The total number of prisoners incarcerated during the year in the jails and lock-ups was 5,205, being less by 87 than during the previous year, and the daily average number was 1,619 as compared with 1,795 in the previous year, shewing a decrease of 176; but there was an increase of 263 in the number received into jail, which indicates shorter sentences of imprisonment. The releases and removals from the jails, and lock-ups were as follows, leaving 1,614 persons in prison at the close of the year.

By acquittal on appeal	105
On expiry of sentence	3,002
On payment of fine	375

Total.....	5,205

Of the above, 1,430 were sentenced to simple imprisonment, 3,412 to hard labor, 276 to medium, and 87 to light labor.

161. Reconvictions.—The percentage of reconvicted prisoners to total admissions in all the jails is shewn as 5·53, as against 5·8 of the previous year.

162. Escapes.—Two convicts only effected their escape from talook lock-ups. Of 33 escaped convicts who remained uncaptured at the end of the year 1869, 2 were recaptured during 1870. Six under-trial prisoners effected their escape from different lock-ups during the year.

163. Conduct and Discipline.—There has been a marked improvement in the conduct and discipline of prisoners generally; 232 prisoners only were punished for breaches of jail rules as against 427 during the previous year. The total ratio of punishment per cent of average strength being 23·7 in 1869 as against 14·2 for the past year.

The proportion of prisoners who were punished for smoking, or possessing tobacco, quarrelling, using bad language, &c., is very nearly the same as that of 1869.

164. Convict Warders.—In all 95 prisoners were employed during the year as warders, guards and overseers, as against 80 in 1869. The practice of employing prisoners in this manner was restricted to the Bangalore (Central), Shimoga, Mysore and Kolár jails.

165. Education.—Of the total number of convicts 82·23 per cent were wholly unable to read or write, 14·85 per cent could read and write a little, and only 2·92 per cent could read and write well. Instruction was given to prisoners in the Bangalore, Mysore and Shimoga jails. In the two former the daily average number under instruction was 583 and 6 respectively. In all 925 prisoners were instructed to some extent in reading and writing.

166. Expenditure.—The total expenditure incurred in guarding and maintaining the prisoners in both jails and lock-ups amounted to Rs. 1,58,362, as against Rs. 1,44,769 in 1869, and the total cost per head of average strength amounted to Rs. 97—12—6, as against Rs. 80—10—8. The following is an abstract of the charge:—

Daily Average No. of Prisoners...	{ In 1870 1·619 / In 1869 1·799	Total Cost.			Cost per Prisoner.

167. Jail Labor.—The following statement shews that the estimated amount earned by the prisoners from all sources of industry was Rs. 64,220—8—0, the average per head being Rs. 40—7—0. There is a decrease of Rs. 4—11—0 per head in the average earnings of prisoners as compared with the returns of the previous year. The falling off is attributed by the Judicial Commissioner to the fact that there were 1,430 non-laboring prisoners in the jails last year, as compared with 1,354 in 1869, and also to the circumstance that the daily average number of prisoners was less by 176 than in 1869.

	Rs.	A.	P.

In jail gardens	9,751	15	0
On Manufactures	16,185	7	0
Total Rs.	64,220	8	0

168. Manufactures.—During the year Rs. 5,327—11—4 were remitted to the treasury as cash profits derived from manufactures. The total cash receipts during the year were Rs. 26,339—3—1. Of outstanding bills due to the jails, the amounts were Rs. 5,434—3—4. The value in stock was Rs. 543—6—7, and in manufactured goods Rs. 4,228—2—7. The average actual cash earnings per head were Rs. 3—6—11.

169. Diet.—The average monthly cost of dieting each prisoner in all the jails was Rs. 2—6—5, as against Rs. 2—4—6 in 1869.

170. Health.—The ratio of deaths per cent of total jail population was 0·73 only, as against 1·76 in 1869. The general results are shewn in the following comparative table for the two years:—

	1869.	1870.
Admission into hospital during the year.	2,030	1,400
Daily average number of sick	64·69	46·291
Deaths	95	39
Ratio of deaths to total number of Jail population	1·76	73·

Fever, as in the previous year, was the prevailing disease. Notwithstanding that cholera made its appearance in the districts, no single case of cholera occurred in any of the jails during the year. Out of 3,690 convicts discharged from all the jails in the past year, 3,296 gained, and 394 only lost weight.

171. Civil Prisoners.—The number of civil prisoners confined during the year was 240, against 140 in 1869. The average cost of each civil prisoner was Rs. 47—11—3.

172. Prisoners under Trial.—There were 9,559 persons in confinement under trial during the year, against 10,855 in 1869, the cost per head of average strength being Rs. 130—9—2, against Rs. 99—11—9 of the preceding year.

173. Bangalore Central Jail.—The report of the Superintendent of this jail, Dr. Henderson, which has hitherto been published as an appendix to the Administration Report of the Province, will hereafter be printed separately with the Departmental Reports.

D.—POLICE.

174. General Remarks.—The forms of returns prescribed by the Statistical Committee have been adopted for the Bangalore District only, in which the Police have been organized on the system which prevails in the Madras Presidency; the returns for the remaining districts in the Province have been drawn up according to the old forms.

175. In the Bangalore Cantonment and Town, the Police were organized and placed upon a footing somewhat similar to the Madras Mofussil Police, in the middle of May 1868; and the scheme was extended to the whole of the Bangalore District in April 1869.

176. In the other districts of the Province, the Police force is composed of the old established Kandáchár peons, who are placed under the direct control of the Amildars of talooks as heads of Police.

177. The Strength, &c., of the Bangalore Police.—The strength and cost of the regular Police of the Bangalore District is shewn in the following table.

Regular Police, Cost defrayed by the Mysore Revenue	Bangalore Cantonment Police	Superintendent of Police	1	Total Cost Rs. 1,14,884.

178. Cost of Police.—The total cost on account of salaries for the above, amounts to Rs. 1,30,476, in addition to which the sum of Rs. 24,590 has been put down as the cost for office establishment, clothing, contingencies, and cost of construction, and repairs of Police buildings; thus making a Budget provision of Rs. 1,55,066 for the year 1870—71. Of this sum, the actual expenditure under all heads for the whole year amounted to Rs. 1,41,604 leaving a net saving from the Budget grant of Rs. 13,462.

179. Cost to Population.—In the Bangalore District, with a population estimated at 527,207 persons, and a Police strength of 614 officers, the proportion of Police to area is stated as 1 to 4·16 square miles, and the ratio of Police to population 1 to 858 persons. The above computation excludes the returns for the Bangalore Cantonment and Town. In the Bangalore Cantonment, with a population of 79,301, the proportion of Police to area and population is 12 police-men to 1 square mile, and 1 police-man to 329 persons respectively.

180. In the Bangalore Town or "Pété," with a population of 52,895 persons, the proportion of police to area and population is 22 police-men to 1 square mile, and 1 police-man to 398 persons respectively.

181. The cost of the Bangalore Police, inclusive of the Police entertained in the Town and Cantonment, is estimated at Rs. 0—3—9 per head of population. But taking the actual amount of expenditure during the year, viz., Rs. 1,41,604 the cost per head of population is three annas and five pies.

182. Working of the Police.—The working of the Police in the Bangalore District during the year is exhibited in the following table:—

E.—MILITARY.

191. Local Military Force.—The Local Force is composed of six regiments of Silládar Horse, and four regiments of Infantry or "Bár." These regiments are commanded by Native Officers termed "Regimentdars" in the Cavalry, and "Commandants" in the Infantry. The whole force is under the control of the Military Assistant to the Chief Commissioner, whose head quarters are at Bangalore.

192. The Mysore Horse consisted formerly of 7 regiments. The number was reduced in June 1867 to six, the immediate object of the reduction being to provide the means of increasing the pay of the men. The average strength of each regiment is 349 Non-Commissioned Officers and men, while there are 8 Native Officers to each.

193. The Mysore Horse numbers in all at present 48 Officers, and 2,098 Non-Commissioned Officers and men.

194. The pay of a trooper in the Mysore Horse, which was fixed at Rs. 20, has been raised successively to Rs. 22 in 1864, and to Rs. 26 in 1867.

195. The strength of the "Bár" or Infantry consists of 92 Native Officers, 281 Non-Commissioned Officers and 2,070 men, distributed over four regiments, the average strength in rank and file of each being 517.

196. The pay of a first class sepoy was in 1863 raised from Rs. 6—8—0 to Rs. 7, and in 1868 to Rs. 8 per mensem, and that of a second class sepoy from Rs. 5—8—0 to Rs. 6 in 1863, and to Rs. 7 in 1868. These increases extended to Havildars, whose pay for the two grades of that rank has been raised from Rs. 9 and Rs. 8 to Rs. 11 and Rs. 10 respectively.

197. Cost of Force.—The cost of the Cavalry for the past year including contingencies amounted to Rs. 8,17,963—7—0, and that of the Infantry to Rs. 2,93,160—15—5, making a total of Rs. 11,11,129—6—5 for the whole force.

198. Establishment of Horses.—The Cavalry horses on the 1st April 1871 numbered 2,146, of which 1,186 were horses, and 960 were mares.

An establishment of 41 stallions for breeding purposes in connection with the Sillédar Force has been kept up for some years. The number is considered in excess of that required for the object in view, and it at present consists of 27 horses of the several classes shewn in the *margin. The results of the arrangements in connection with this establishment are not considered to be very successful or satisfactory; but it is hoped that the measures now in progress may place this important Department on a better footing in this respect.

199. Arms.—All the Mysore Horse are now armed with lances.

Remount Fund.—The Remount or "Chanda" Fund to which every individual of the Mysore Horse contributes 1½ Rs. monthly from his pay, in consideration of receiving Rs. 200 from the fund towards the purchase of a remount, is working well, and the men highly appreciate the benefits of the institution.

200 Stables and Lines.—The Local Force has as yet been only partially supplied with stables and lines, and the question of the completion of the accommodation under both heads is now under report to the Government of India.

BOARD OF REVENUE LIBRARY SECRETARIAT

PART III.

PRODUCTION AND DISTRIBUTION.

A.—FINANCE.

201. Revenue and Expenditure.—The detailed statements prescribed under these heads will be found in Appendix III. A, 1—3.

202. The financial results of the year 1870-71 exhibit an estimated surplus of income over expenditure amounting to Rs. 3,96,382.

£ 39,638.

203. Receipts.—The total receipts realized and brought to account within the year amounted to Rs. 91,97,042; of this sum, Rs. 14,65,446 should be deducted as comprising a portion of the land revenue and † mohatarfa for 1869-70 which were collected in 1870-71 under the orders referred to in para 208 of this report. The amount realized therefore from the demand for 1870-71 was Rs. 77,31,596. If to this latter sum be added the instalments of land revenue and mohatarfa assessments, the collection of which under the operation of the orders above quoted were not made till after the expiry of the official year 1870-71, viz., Rs. 28,79,786, the income of the year may be taken at Rs. 1,06,11,382.

†For details of mohatarfa see para 211 of this Report.

204. Expenditure.—The expenditure of the year amounted to Rs. 1,02,15,000.

205. The surplus of the year is thus found to amount to Rs. 3,96,382; but as the amount of the postponed collections, viz., Rs. 28,79,786 may not be fully realized, this estimate of surplus may undergo some modification.

206. Abstract of Receipts.—The following is an abstract of the receipts realized in 1870-71 under all the heads of revenue, as compared with the Budget estimates of the year.

Items.	1870—71.	Estimate.
Land Revenue including minor forest produce	60,07,315	75,47,100

	23,403	22,000
Police contributions from Municipalities	17,458	21,700
Fines and forfeitures	1,180	2,990
Education, schooling fees	10,553	8,000
„ Sale of Books	15,393	18,000
„ Education Cess	12,369	...
Interest	426	...
Miscellaneous	82,004	66,150
Local Force	2,073	10,000
Public Works	65,327	44,000
Total Rs.....	91,97,042	10,70,000

207. With reference to the above statement the following points may be noticed.

208. Land Revenue.—The great discrepancy between the estimate and the income under this head, is accounted for by the postponement of the period of collecting the land revenue and mohatarfa assessments as previously noticed, the estimates having been framed prior to the promulgation of the orders issued in January 1870.

209. Sáyer Customs.—The realizations exceeded the estimates by Rs. 8,652 as well as the actuals for 1869-70, as the result of the circular orders issued in March and December 1870 prescribing more definite rules for the enforcement of the excise duty on betel-nut and tobacco.

210. Abkári.—The receipts aggregated Rs. 10,14,102, the highest amount yet obtained, exceeding the estimates by Rs. 56,002, and the actuals of the previous year by Rs. 34,264.

211. Assessed Taxes, (Mohatarfa.)—The deficiency in the estimates under this head were due to the assignment of the mohatarfa revenue, amounting in all to Rs. 17,500, to the Municipalities of the Towns of Mysore and Shimoga, to meet the cost of the Town Police.

212. Stamps.—The realizations credited under this head were from the sale of stamp paper and labels under the General Stamp Act, while the estimate, viz., Rs. 4,09,550 provided for receipts from both judicial and general stamps.

The receipts from Court Fees' stamps, viz., Rs. 1,41,571, have been credited however to law and justice. Though the gross stamp revenue has increased, the effect of the new Acts which have come into operation, viz., the General Stamp Act from January 1870, and the Court Fees' Act from June 1870, has been to diminish the rates of increase, which was 24 per cent in 1868—69, 12 per cent in 1869—70, and barely 3 per cent in 1870—71.

213. Mint.—The receipts under this head were from the sale of obsolete Mysore copper coins, which were mutilated and sold as old copper.

214. Arché.—The collections exceeded the estimate by Rs. 400, notwithstanding the reduction in the rate of postage from April 1869.

215. Law and Justice.—The receipts largely exceeded the estimates for reasons explained in para 212 above.

216. Registration.—The income of the Registration Department from fees and penalties has progressively increased from Rs. 10,583 in 1866—67, to Rs. 23,402 in 1870—71.

217. Education.—The school fees shew Rs. 4,168 in the High School, against Rs. 3,213 in the previous year; a result which is due to the enhancement of the rates.

The sale proceeds of school books is equivalent to their cost to Government.

The education cess forms a new source of revenue to the Educational Department, and is derived from the local fund cess, of which one per cent is appropriated for educational purposes. The amount, viz., Rs. 12,369, credited in 1870-71 includes accumulated cess from 1868-69.

218. Interest.—To this head has been credited the interest realized on Government of India securities belonging to the Mysore Government Savings' Bank.

219. Miscellaneous.—The aggregate amount of miscellaneous receipts is Rs. 82,004, against an estimate of Rs. 66,150. The following are some of the items comprised under this head:—

	Rs.
Revenue of the Island of Seringapatam	24,969
Miscellaneous fines, refunds, &c.	24,283
Fees on Money Orders	5,725
Subscriptions to the Mysore Gazette	2,336
Fees for occupation of staging Bungalows	5,223

220. Expenditure.—The total expenditure of the year was Rs. 1,02,14,955, as against the provision of Rs. 1,06,35,032 in the Budget estimate, and an actual expenditure of Rs. 1,07,52,749 in 1869—70.

221. The following is an abstract of the expenditure 1870—71, compared with that of 1869—70 and with the estimate.

Total Disbursements.....	1,07,52,749	1,06,35,032	1,02,14,955

222. The principal items in the above statement may be shortly noticed.

223. Land Revenue.—The total grant under this head for the ordinary revenue establishments of Superintendents, Deputy Superintendents, and Assistant Superintendents, and other offices estimated on the sanctioned scale, was Rs. 6,66,905, and the expenditure was Rs. 6,54,132. In the year 1869-70 it was Rs. 6,87,069.

The fluctuations under this head are mainly owing to the Europe furlough allowances of officers drawn from the Secretary of State, which are adjusted whenever intimation of the payments made are received from the Financial Secretary or the Accountant General of Madras.

224. In talook establishments there was a net excess of charge over grant of Rs. 16,471, owing to certain contemplated reductions not having been fully carried into effect. Contrasted with 1869-70 the charges of talook establishments were less by Rs. 42,000.

225. In the Inám Commission there was a net saving on grant of Rs. 1,000; but the grant for salaries was exceeded by Rs. 5,016 on account of the acting allowance paid during the absence of the permanent incumbent on privilege leave, and also owing to the promotion of two Assistants.

226. In the Revenue Survey Department the grant was Rs. 2,25,000, and the actual outlay Rs. 2,17,368, which was Rs. 17,574 more than in 1869-70, owing to the increase of establishments consequent on the extension of operations.

227. In the Forest Conservancy Department there was a saving on the total grant of Rs. 14,258. The expenditure on conservancy and working was Rs. 81,135, against Rs. 44,252 in 1869-70, and the establishment and contingent charges were Rs. 65,907, against Rs. 59,998 in the previous year. The increase is due to the extension of operations and improved supervision.

228. Miscellaneous.—Total outlay Rs. 79,670, against Rs. 92,496 in 1869-70, which included Rs. 20,317 disbursed on account of a debt of the late Mahárája. The actual increase of Rs. 7,491 is explained by the following comparison:—

229. Superannuation and Retired Allowance.—The disbursements on account of pensions was Rs. 74,722, against a grant of Rs. 68,843 and an expenditure in 1869-70 of Rs. 68,555. The number of pensions sanctioned in the year was 98, amounting to Rs. 1,274—12—0 per mensem. The losses were 21 in number, involving a saving of Rs. 573—13—0 per mensem.

Gratuities to discharged servants amounted to Rs. 14,146, against a grant of Rs. 10,000. They amounted in 1869-70 to Rs. 37,919.

230. The total disbursements on this head were Rs. 1,13,738, against a grant of Rs. 1,08,294 and an expenditure of Rs. 1,32,563 in 1869-70.

231. Mysore Local Force.—The total charge was Rs. 10,96,546, against Rs. 11,19,564 in 1869-70, when the outlay on barracks and stables (now debited to the Public Works Budget) was Rs. 25,643.

232. Mysore Invested Surplus Fund.—The balance at the opening of the year was Rs. 27,50,748; of which Rs. 23,23,300 was in Government securities of the 4 per cent loan, and Rs. 2,00,000 on 5 per cent debentures. The interest accruing during the year and duly credited was Rs. 1,02,932.

233. The preliminary expenses of surveying lines for a projected railway, amounting to Rs. 53,922—8—0, were charged to this account under the sanction of the Government of India, leaving a balance of Rs. 27,99,811—8—3.

237. The following statement exhibits the condition of the *local funds of the several districts.

*District Funds.

	Balance, 1st April 1870.	Receipts, 1870—71.	Expenditure, 1870—71.	Balance 31st March 1871.

238. In addition to the sums above shewn as credited to district funds and which are chiefly derived from a tax on ploughs (for which a uniform cess of half an anna in the rupee has since been substituted), a cess of one anna in the rupee on all occupied lands is levied for general local purposes in those talooks which have come under the operations of the survey settlement, and a further anna in the rupee is imposed on wet or irrigated lands for the purpose of meeting the outlay on current repairs and maintenance of tanks. Inám lands are subject to this cess in common with sarkár lands.

239. The one anna cess for local purposes yielded during the year Rs. 35,121 which, added to the balance at the close of the previous year, made the aggregate amount of Rs. 77,308. The expenditure was Rs. 42,058.

240. The unappropriated balance at credit of the cess fund on the 31st March 1871 was distributed among the undermentioned districts as follows :—.

			Rs.
Nandidroog Division,	Toomkoor	District ...	2,472
Nagar do	Shimoga	„ ...	6,227
	Kadoor	„ ...	284
	Chituldroog	„ ...	26,266
		Total.....	35,249 (fractions omitted.)

241. The one anna tank fund cess yielded an income of Rs. 5,824 during the year, with the balance of the previous year, viz., Rs. 5,086; the whole amount at credit is Rs. 10,910, no portion having been as yet appropriated.

B.—PUBLIC WORKS.

242. Staff.—The Engineering Staff of the Public Works Department in the Province, exclusive of the Irrigation, Railway, and Forest branches, consisted of 1 Chief Engineer and Secretary in the Public Works Department, 11 Executive Engineers, of whom one acts as Assistant to the Chief Engineer, and 7 Assistant Engineers.

243. In the Irrigation Department, the Staff comprised 1 Superintending Engineer and Under-Secretary in this branch, 3 Executive Engineers and 5 Assistant Engineers.

244. The Forest Department consisted of 1 Conservator, 1 Deputy Conservator, 2 Assistant Conservators and 2 Sub-Assistant Conservators, the staff having been increased by 1 Assistant Conservator during the year.

245. Expenditure.—The following table exhibits the outlay incurred on all public works during the year under review, exclusive of the cost of the railway survey.

	General Revenue.	Local Fund.	Total.
Military Works	7,502	...	7,502
Civil Buildings	1,18,908	...	1,18,908

Forests	81,061	...	81,061
Total.....	10,43,372	2,12,125	12,55,495

246. In appendices full details are given of this expenditure, and the principal works of each class will now be shortly alluded to.

247. MILITARY WORKS.—The Cantonments of Bangalore and French Rocks not being subject to the Local Administration, the works providing for the accommodation of Her Majesty's troops at those stations need not be referred to here. The Mysore Administration has only to deal with the Local Force—known as the Mysore State Sawár and Bár establishments. For the troops quartered at Shimoga, huts and stables were commenced during the year, and at other stations a few works of minor importance were executed.

248. CIVIL BUILDINGS.—Four new taluk cutcherries were built during the year.

249. Post Office.—Several small anché (local post) houses were constructed in the outlying districts.

250. General.—A civil hospital and dispensary was commenced at Hassan, and made fair progress. The buildings in the Bangalore fort formerly used as the Commissioner's Cutcherry, being in a dilapidated and unsafe condition, were dismantled, and the materials sold by public auction.

251. Ecclesiastical.—Enclosure walls have been erected round the Protestant Burial Ground at Shimoga, and the Roman Catholic Cemetery at Chikkanagalúru.

252. Educational.—Two new school houses have been built during the year at Srínivásapura and Yelahanka. The old ones at Kolár and Hassan have been enlarged.

253. Judicial.—The new jail at Shimoga has been nearly completed. A compound wall and dressers' quarters have been added to the jail at Mysore, and several new Police stations and choultries have been built.

254. IRRIGATION WORKS.—The Srírámadévara anicut has been finished, and has stood satisfactorily the test of an exceptionally high flood. The sanctioned improvements to its channels have also progressed fairly.

255. In the Hagari Division, the Bégúr, Nayáken, and Yakavahalli tanks have been restored, and the Kumbár Mardagere and Sálikere channel works have been pushed on vigorously; whilst the surveys in connection with the great Mári Kanavé project have been completed.

256. In the Kávéri Division the Márchalli anicut was satisfactorily completed, and a variety of minor works not calling for special notice were carried out on the Kávéri channels.

257. An important change was made during the year in connection with the river channels by their transfer from the Revenue Officers, who were formerly responsible for their maintenance, to the officers of the Public Works Department, and a partial re-organization of the establishment in charge thereof. This change, by which eventual material improvement in the condition of these important works is anticipated, has, in this respect, so far worked satisfactorily, though not altogether so to the ryots, who have shewn much discontent at the greater stringency of the arrangements under the new system.

258. The repair of the vast net work of tanks which extends over the Province occupied much of the time and attention of the establishment during the year, and a scheme providing for their future maintenance and for raising them all gradually to a fixed standard of safety was submitted to Government.

259. COMMUNICATIONS.—The roads in Mysore may be divided into two general classes; (1) those made and maintained from the general revenue, and known as imperial roads, comprising both metalled and unmetalled lines; and (2) those made and repaired from local funds, and designated "Plough Tax" roads. The former are solely in charge of Public Works Officers. They are the main or through lines of the Province, or the more important of the links between the various chief towns. The latter consist of the several country roads used for local traffic. They are worked by the Revenue authorities, with the assistance of Public Works Officers, wherever difficulties occur calling for special engineering knowledge.

260. Imperial Roads.—The most important new works of this class in hand during the year were the new road from Atchilbetta to Mallavalli, which will complete the connection between Bangalore and Mysore, viâ the Kánakánahalli valley, and the line from Gundlupété to Sultan's battery connecting the southern districts with the Wynád. Both of these made satisfactory progress.

261. A commencement was made during the year on the system of roads which it is proposed to carry out in the Nagar Division which, from want of proper roads, is at present cut off from communication with the surrounding districts. Several experimental traces were opened out, and ground was broken on the new Hyderghar Ghát, which will afford a much needed outlet into the low country of Canara.

262. Of works of less importance the improvement of the Nelamangala-Kunigallu road, and the continuation of the metalling of the Bangalore-Bellary road, need alone be noticed. The progress on these was not altogether satisfactory.

263. District or Plough Tax Roads.—Fair progress has been made in all the districts in opening out new lines, and in the extension or improvement of old ones.

264. In the Nandidroog Division four new roads of this class have been completed, viz., from Jangumékóté to Hosakóté, from Srinivásapura to Thádgóli, from Kunigallu to Huliyúrdurga, and from Gubbi to Hebbúru; whilst several minor works for cross drainage have been carried out on the old lines.

265. In the Ashtagram Division the Sargúru-Bégúru road has been completed, and satisfactory progress has been made in opening out lines from Chunchinkatté to Rámnáthpura, from Hassan to Háranahalli and from Attikuppa to Nágamangala. On the construction of those lying in the talooks of the Hassan District, the ryots have been induced by the influence of the District Officer to contribute their labor free, so that the cost of the masonry works only has fallen on the Government.

266. In the Nagar Division the Honnáli-Kumsi and Ságara-Siráłkoppa new roads have been pushed forward, and Hosadurga-Adjampura, with improvements to the Hosadurga-Huliyára roads, have been completed.

267. The condition of all the communications throughout the Province is on the whole very satisfactory. During the year under report the minor lines have been maintained in fair trafficable order, and the main ones have been kept fully up to first class standard.

268. Arboriculture.—Attention has been given to the planting of trees along all the lines, and fair progress in this respect can be reported.

269. Bridges.—The Sakaléspura bridge at the head of the Manjarábád Ghát, across the Hémávati river, was opened for traffic in May, and the remaining months of the year were employed in bringing the approaches up to form. The parapets of the great Harihara bridge were carried up nearly to completion, leaving only a few finishing touches to be given to the fine structure. Several small bridges were built on the road from Maddúru to the falls of the Kávéri, and on that between Kadoor and Chikkamagalúru.

270. River Improvements.—The rivers of Mysore are not navigable and the canals are not used for traffic. No works of this kind were therefore necessary.

271. Accommodation for Travellers.—No new works for this purpose were undertaken during the year, excellent accommodation being already available along nearly all the chief roads. For the first time in this Province fees were levied on travellers occupying the staging bungalows, to the improvement of which the funds thus realized will be appropriated.

272. MISCELLANEOUS PUBLIC IMPROVEMENTS.—At Bangalore, Mysore, Hassan, and Shimoga, many useful works were carried out from municipal funds in connection with the drainage, opening out of streets, formation of reservoirs, &c., and steps were taken to improve the sanitary condition of many of the district towns.

FORESTS.

273. The State forests in Mysore, which are under the direct control of the Forest Department, and consist of the most valuable timber, cover an area of 428 square miles. The extent of the "District forests," which contain less valuable wood and are worked by the local Revenue Officers with the occasional assistance of the Officers of the Forest Department, has not yet been accurately ascertained. A scheme has been prepared for the better management of these, by placing them under the direct supervision of the Forest establishment.

274. In addition to the above change, the formation of railway fuel plantations has been entrusted to the Department, and during the year 4,270 acres of land have been taken up for this purpose; of which 3,000 acres have been enclosed by ditches, and 1,520 acres prepared for planting.

275. The custody, collection and sale of sandalwood is an important part of the duties of the Department, the realization therefrom forming a large item of revenue. In view to the better preservation and more extended cultivation of this valuable product, a commencement has been made in the formation of sandal reserves, 500 acres of land having been enclosed for the purpose, and 700 acres selected for future operations.

276. An attempt was made to grow the blue gum (Eucalyptus globulus), but was unsuccessful, owing to a large quantity of the seed having lost its vitality, before its arrival in India. The experiment will, however, be continued. The planting up of new plantations of teak and other woods have also occupied the attention of Forest Officers during the year.

277. The question of the supply of wood for domestic use to Bangalore and other large towns, and its enhanced price, having been brought to notice, regulations have been introduced to check the indiscriminate felling and consequent gradual destruction of the jungles from which firewood is drawn.

278. The following table shews in detail the operations, income and outlay of the year under review:—

C.—RAILWAYS.

279. The subject of the extension of the Railway system to this Province having been taken up by the Government of India, an establishment was organized for the purpose of carrying out the necessary preliminary investigations, and surveys were made of the most promising lines radiating from Bangalore to the chief outlying centres of commerce. After careful deliberation, a system of light railways to connect Bangalore, Toomkoor, Tipátúru, Hassan and Mysore, was determined on as the most suitable, to meet the requirements of the country, and the Government of India, in March 1870, ordered the preparation of a project for that link of the chain which will connect Bangalore directly with Mysore—the Native Capital. From this branch the most favorable results are anticipated, and the staff has been since engaged in collecting data and in framing the necessary estimates. The expenditure incurred amounted to Rs. 53,698.

D.—AGRICULTURAL.

280. Particulars regarding crop and stock are given in Appendices III. D, 1 and 2.

281. The proportionate area cultivated with the various crops during the year was as follows:—

Rági	53·50	per cent.
Rice	25·	„
Coffee	2·14	„
Arecanut	·90	„
Cotton	·75	„
Sugar	·48	„
Tobacco	·49	„
Mulberry	·31	„
Vegetables...	1·10	„
Oil-seeds	2·63	„
Wheat	·13	„
Gram, Baller, and other grains ...	12·57	„

282. Cereals.—Rági is the principal grain consumed by the masses in this Province, and is grown throughout the country.

283. Rice cultivation prevails very generally over the whole Province in the Malnád or western talooks of the Nagar Division. Where the south-west monsoon rains are abundant, paddy is grown almost exclusively.

284. Coffee.—Coffee is grown chiefly in the western talooks of the Nagar Division, and of the Hassan District of the Ashtagram Division.

285. Nagar Division.—In the Nagar Division the revenue derived from this source was Rs. 38,910—8—11, or Rs. 640—2—0 over that realized in the previous year; the season for this crop appears to have been good owing to the fall of periodical rains.

286. The quantity of crops exported by Europeans was 1,182 kandis, 11 maunds, 11 seers, the duty on which was Rs. 5,912—13—5; the crops exported by native planters was 6,616 maunds, 10 seers, 16 tolas, or six times larger than the former, the duty on this being Rs. 33,167—9—6.

287. The total number of coffee gardens was 8,693, of which, 106 belonged to Europeans, and 8,587 to natives scattered over 55,237 acres and containing 63,389,230 trees.

288. There are 22 European and 4,760 native planters in the Division.

289. Ashtagram Division.—In the Hassan District of the Ashtagram Division the coffee estates are reported to be gradually recovering from the injury caused by successive years of drought and scarcity.

290. The excise duty or hálat of 4 annas per *ranund was levied on 1,520 tons and 7 cwt of coffee during the year; of which 333 tons, 6 cwt were grown by Europeans, and 1,187 tons, 1 cwt, by natives, shewing an increase over the previous year of 51 tons, 1 cwt, in the out-turn of European estates, and 36 tons, 14 cwt in that of native estates. The extent of land at present cultivated with coffee, in this district, is roughly estimated at 42,310 acres, and Europeans (about 32 in number) hold nearly half of this. They only, however, contributed Rs. 6,066—3—8 in hálat to Government, against Rs. 28,741—0—6 paid by natives.

*28 lbs.

291. Cinchona.—This plant has been experimentally cultivated for some years past on the Bábábuden Hills in the Nagar Division, and on the Biligirirangam Hills in the Ashtagram Division.

292. On a report of the Madras Government Quinologist, Mr. J. Broughton, the proposal to extend the cultivation of cinchona on the Bábábuden Hills has been abandoned. The conclusion arrived at was that the yield of febrifuge alkaloids was inferior to that of trees of the same age grown on the Nilgiris, as shewn by the following comparison. (The amounts are in grammes, and in both cases express averages.)

	Trees grown on Bábábuden.	Trees grown on Nilgiris.
Branch bark	0·32	7·34
Trunk „	3·44	21·15
Total...	3·76	28·49

293. Again, an analysis of trunk bark of a single tree in the Bábábuden plantation averages 3·43 per cent of total alkaloids, and that of the mixed bark of three trees collected at the most favorable period for occurrence of alkaloids in the bark, gave 4 per cent of total alkaloids. On the other hand, the trunk bark of Nilgiri trees of the same age yield 6·49 per cent of total alkaloids.

294. It was Mr. Broughton's opinion that, in order to obtain the requisite conditions of a better soil and more abundant rain-fall, the advantages afforded by the present elevated site of the Bábábuden plantation might be relinquished in favor of one situated on the lower slopes of the hills and on the side exposed to the south-west monsoon.

295. The plantation in the Billigiriirangam Hills consists of some 2,500 plants, which are in a thriving condition. No analysis of the bark in this plantation has, however, been made.

296. Carolina Paddy.—The cultivation of carolina paddy has everywhere proved a failure from causes which are not satisfactorily explained. It is certain that with ordinary care the crop will grow luxuriously, but the flour of the grain is said to be unpalatable, and the ryots allege that the straw is too coarse for their cattle. There is reason to believe that the general experiments made with this grain have not been conducted in a manner to ensure a successful result.

297. China Grass.—The china grass is reported to grow well in the Malnád and to any extent, so much so that the coffee planters are said to uproot it as a weed.

298. Cardamoms.—Cardamom plantations are still in their infancy; but the planters are beginning to turn their attention to the cultivation of this product which grows luxuriously in favorable localities in the Malnád.

299. Cotton.—The cultivation of cotton throughout the Province is very limited; it is considered by the ryots to be unremunerative, and they are indifferent to its culture, as they are becoming more dependent on foreign markets for their supply of cloth. Its cultivation is greatest in the Chituldroog District, where the total area under cotton was 34,271 acres, and the out-turn 55,763 *maunds and 11 seers, shewing a decrease of 12,164 acres in extent, and 62,511 maunds in out-turn as compared with 1869—70. The cotton crops are reported to have suffered from disease, unseasonable rain, and attacks of insects. The market price of a maund has fallen from 12 Rs. in the previous year, to Rs. 5 in this year.

*of 28 lbs per Maund.

300. Stock.—The following is an approximate enumeration of the live and other stock in the Province as shewn by the returns:—

Horned Cattle	2,778,000
Horses	5,500
Ponies	21,000
Donkeys	47,000
Sheep and Goats	2,108,200
Pigs	40,500
Carts	61,000
Ploughs	575,400

301. Endeavours to improve the breed of cattle throughout the Province have been made by distributing young bulls of the famous Amrat Mahal breed to large owners of herds on the payment of a nominal price, and with the condition that the animals are not sold or otherwise disposed of without express permission of the District Officer.

302. With a similar object prizes were distributed at a large cattle fair held in March 1871 in the neighbourhood of Nandidroog for the best cattle exhibited, and measures are in progress for making these exhibitions more general throughout the Province.

E.—PRICES OF PRODUCE AND LABOR.

303. As in last year, prices have continued to fall, and the decrease has affected all the staple articles of food. In one district (Hassan) the fall is so low as 40 per cent below the prices of last year. This diminution in the profits of cultivation has necessarily been severely felt by the cultivating and land holding classes. The following examples may be cited.

Rice, 1st sort, which averaged from 10 to 13 seers per rupee at the close of last year, fell in price to 11 and 17 seers.

Rági, which varied from 30 to 40 seers per rupee in last year, fell to an average of 53 seers.

304. Further details under this head will be found in Appendix III. E, 1.

305. Labor.—The rates of skilled labor varies according to the locality, from 6 to 12 annas per diem, and of unskilled labor, from 2 to 5 annas per diem.

306. The ordinary rate of hire for a cart drawn by bullocks is 11 annas, or somewhat higher in populous countries, but never exceeds one rupee per diem.

F.—MINES AND QUARRIES.

307. The return prescribed by the Calcutta Statistical Committee will be found in Appendix III. F.

308. Metal and Ores.—The principal metallic products of the Mysore Province are iron, iron sand, gold dust, emery stones, and small quartz crystals.

309. Iron.—In the Nandidroog Division iron ore is found in four talooks of the Bangalore, five talooks of the Kolár, and one talook of the Toomkoor Districts. There are 402 mines in this Division, and 6,502 maunds* of iron were produced during the year, being 196 more than the produce of the previous year. The duty levied on furnaces amounted to Rs. 2,443—6—3 in 1870—71.

* Of 23 lbs. per Maund.

310. Iron abounds in the Shimoga, Chennagiri, Tarikere, Kadoor, Hiriyúru, Hosadurga, Chituldroog and Búdihálu Talooks of the Nagar Division, as well as in the Mysore District of the Ashtagram Division.

311. Gold.—Gold dust is found in the washings caused by the monsoon rains from the Hémagiri Hill in the Huliyúrdurga Talook of the Nandidroog Division; the washers are said to realize about four annas worth of gold in a day's washing.

312. Emery stones are to be found in the Tarikere Talook, and small quartz crystals near Nittúru.

313. In the Nagar Division flint, iron sand, granite stone, slate, potstone, and gypsum are the minerals found. Clay iron stone abounds in some ranges of hills near Chituldroog, and the hills north of Harihara; drawing slate is also found in the same region. Mica slate occurs often below the beds of marl in localities where cotton soil prevails. Iron sand is usually found in river beds after the rainy season.

314. Salt.—Common earth salt occurs in the Chituldroog Division in abundance. It is usually found in red soil upon the surface of which it effloresces. It is manufactured in talooks south of Chituldroog, and used by those natives who cannot afford to purchase sea salt.

315. Building Materials.—Granite, laterite, and other descriptions of stone suitable for building purposes, are procured in abundance throughout the Province; but laterite is mostly confined to the Malnád talooks bordering on the Western Ghâts.

Kunker or lime nodules formed in earth abounds in most places, and is extensively used in metalling roads.

Limestone of different descriptions is to be obtained in most of the hills in the Maidán talooks.

Potstone is produced in the Hassan District, and is well adapted for sculpture.

G.—MANUFACTURES.

316. The information given under this heading cannot be relied on as being altogether accurate.

317. The total value of the manufactures of the year in the Nandidroog Division is reported to be as follows:—

	Rs.
Silk	... 5,55,590
Cotton	... 2,795
Fibres	... 1,054
Paper	... 13,300
Iron	... 62,653
Brass and Copper	... 1,15,750
Leather	... 1,83,820
Dye	... 2,06,829
Oil	... 2,37,456
Jaggory and Sugar	...12,11,281
Arrack	... 4,70,342
Bangles	... 21,045
Blankets (country)	... 1,35,026
Bell Metal	... 15,540
Carpets	... 1,05,021
Chunam	... 3,99,954
Cloths	...19,96,070
Cotton	... 1,06,742
Gunny	... 12,946
Opium	... 44,400
Snuff	... 69,640
Other Manufactures	... 2,36,274
Total.....	62,02,478

318. In nearly every part of this Division cotton cloths are woven. The silk manufacture is carried on to a considerable extent in Kengéri, Closepété, Chennapatna, Kánakánahalli, Nelamangala, Kólár, Málúru, Kunigallu and Huliyúrdurga.

319. In the out-turn of silk there is a recorded increase of 1,094 maunds during the year 1870—71, as compared with the previous year; but the branch of industry has much declined, owing to the great mortality among the silk-worms.

320. Gold and silver lace is manufactured at Bangalore to a moderate extent. Chikkanáyakanahalli in the Toomkoor District is noted for the manufacture of blankets. Iron and steel are largely manufactured in Koratagere, Maddagiri, Mágadi and Chennapatna, and is of a somewhat superior quality.

321. Chennapatna in the Bangalore District has long been noted for its wire used for musical instruments.

322. At Pálahalli in the Ashtagram Division, there has been for 10 years past a large sugar manufactory. Cloth, blankets, brass and copper vessels and oil, are the chief articles of manufacture throughout this Division. The number of looms and workmen employed in making cloths and cumblies, may be estimated at 10,730 and 32,240 respectively, and the annual out-turn at Rs. 6,42,800.

323. The manufactured products of the Nagar Division are much of the same description as mentioned above; and consist of blankets, cloths, and carpets, iron implements, brass and copper vessels, &c., coarse canvas called gunny, and hasvé pattés. Superior cloths, and handkerchiefs are manufactured at Molakálumúru, and these are much prized in Bangalore and Mysore.

H.—TRADE.

324. No system of registering the trade in this Province has yet been organized; but the returns from the Nandidroog Division give the following details.

325. The value of exports in this Division is reported to be Rs. 43,48,871, against Rs. 42,49,933, the previous year, and the value of imports Rs. 1,15,84,989, against Rs. 1,81,27,769, last year. The above does not include Railway traffic.

326. The following were the principal exports from the Division during the year:—

Arecanut—Maunds	...	...	...	61,421

Sugar—Maunds	...	...	...	6,000
Sugar-candy—Maunds	...	...	...	3,000

The imports have been chiefly from Bombay, Madras, Bellary, Dharwar, Mysore, Shimoga, Chituldroog, Salem, Combaconum and other places.

K.—CHARITABLE INSTITUTIONS.

328. The statistics of the charitable institutions of the Province are contained in the Appendices, Part III. Section K.

PART IV.

INSTRUCTION.

A.—ECCLESIASTICAL.

329. Clergymen of the church of England on the Madras establishment are posted at the stations of Bangalore and Mysore; 3 at the former, and 1 at the latter place. The minor stations of Hassan, Shimoga, and Toomkoor are visited quarterly by a clergyman of the additional clergy society, and the stations of Oossoor, Hunasúru, French Rocks and Pálhalli by the chaplains of Bangalore and Mysore.

330. There is one chaplain of the established church of Scotland at Bangalore.

331. The Wesleyan Mission has chapels at Bangalore, Mysore Shimoga, and Toomkoor.

332. The London Mission has two chapels at Bangalore, and there is one free communion baptist church at the same station.

333. There are in Bangalore four churches belonging to the Roman Catholic mission, three for native Christians, and one for Europeans and East Indians; the other stations at which this mission has chapels are Balláṗura, Kommanahalli, Madagondapalli, Mattigeri, and Háróhalli, in the Nandidroog Division. In the Ashtagram Division there are chapels at Mysore, Hassan, Setthalli, and three other villages.

In the Nagar Division, there are Catholic chapels at Shimoga, Nagar Chikkamagalúru, and Chituldroog.

B.—EDUCATION.

334. The statistical returns of the educational establishments, under the control of the Director of Public Instruction in the Mysore Province, will be found in Appendices, Part IV, Section B, 1 and 2.

335. Financial Statistics.—The subjoined statement shews the income from various sources during the past three years:—

	1868—69.	1869—70	1870—71
From Imperial Revenue	2,53,25	2,49,186	2,78,648
From Local Sources, viz.,
Endowments	1,552	28	159
Subscriptions and Donations	18,116	22,829	19,425
Fees	24,123	27,217	41,142
Private contributions and receipts in grant in-aid Institutions...	22,715	31,085	23,241
	66,516	81,159	83,967
	3,19,541	3,30,342	3,63,615

336. Expenditure.—The following statement shews the expenditure under this head during the same period:—

	8168—69.	1869—70.	1870—71.
Direction and its subsidiary charges	12,856	13,070	14,252
Inspection do	11,619	19,720	19,988
Government schools	91,218	1,06,944	1,21,667
Buildings	5,989	5,917	11,722
Government contributions to Grant-in-aid Institutions ...	37,966	35,166	34,592
Private do	61,142	74,656	88 051
Miscellaneous, including Central Book Depôt ...	17,688	29,957	33,216
	2,32,878	2,84,507	3,22,906

337. Inspection.—Besides the Director of Public Instruction there are two Inspectors, each of whom has a Circle of inspection. The 1st circle extends over the Bangalore, Kolár, Mysore and Hassan Districts, and Coorg. The 2nd circle includes Tcomkoor, Shimoga, Chituldroog and Kadoor Districts. There is a Mahomedan Sub-Deputy Inspector of Hindustáni Schools, and 8 Sub-Deputy Inspectors of Hóbli Schools.

338. Educational Institutions.—The Educational Department has the control of the following institutions.

464 Government Educational Institutions.
76 Grant-in-aid do.
1,903 Unaided indigenous schools.

Total.. 2,443

339. These institutions comprise 7 higher class schools, viz., 2 Government and 5 grant-in-aid, affording instruction up to the standard of the B. A. degree examination of the University of Madras.

5	District Government Schools of the same grade teaching up to the standard of the Matriculation examination of the University of Madras.
10	Talook Anglo-vernacular schools of the middle class.
9	Aided schools do. do.
435	Government vernacular schools of the lower class, (including hóbli schools.)
29	Aided schools do. do.
5	Government Female Schools.
33	Aided Female do.
4	Government Normal Schools.
3	Special Schools (including 1 Engineering and 2 Jail Schools.)
1,908	Unaided indigenous schools.

340. Compared with 1869—70, the number of grant-in-aid schools of the lower class decreased in number from 78 to 76; on the other hand the number of lower class Government vernacular schools increased from 68 to 79; and that of the hóbli schools from 239 to 325.

341. The average attendance at the several classes of schools was as follows :—

Government Schools	4,685
Hóbli Schools	9,181
Grant-in-aid Schools	4,577
Indigenous Schools	24,864
	43,307

giving a total of 43,307 or 1 student to 93 persons.

342. Compared with 1869-70, the number of scholars shew an increase of 4,347; the increase being most marked in the case of the Government schools of the lower class, and in the grant-in-aid girls' schools. The decrease in number of the Government schools of the higher and middle classes, is due to the reduction of three Anglo-vernacular schools of the middle class.

343. The average annual cost of educating each pupil in Government schools of the higher class was as—

	Rs.
In aided schools of the same grade ...	50	1	7
In Government schools of the middle class..	35	2	11
In aided schools of do ...	33	10	6
In Government schools of the lower class...	8	9	6
In aided schools of do ...	7	15	0
In Government Girls' Schools... ...	13	5	0
In aided female schools	25	0	5
In Government Normal Schools ...	80	0	6
In Government Engineering School ...	305	5	10

344. University Examinations.—Bangalore is the only station in the Province at which a branch examination of the Madras University was held this year. There were 126 candidates, 98 being the number for the Matriculation test, and 28 for the First examination in Arts. The numbers were less than last year, but the results were nearly in the same proportion, 24 having passed the Matriculation and 8 the F. A. test.

345. Bangalore High School.—This school maintains its position as the highest educational institution in the Province, and notwithstanding the great increase in the rate of schooling fee, the numerical strength continues nearly the same as last year. The amount of fees collected was Rs. 4,114, against Rs. 3,148 in the previous year. Out of 5 candidates who went up for the F. A. test, 3 passed, and out of 12 matriculation candidates 8 were successful. A student from the High School has this year, for the first time since the institution of the University examinations, become eligible for one of the scholarships awarded by the Madras Government annually to fifteen out of the first twenty candidates. These scholarships are tenable for four years until the time of appearing for the B. A. degree; but under the rules of the Madras Government the Mysore student is not eligible to hold the scholarship.

346. Schools below the Grade of Colleges.— These consist of schools of the higher class, teaching up to the standard of the Madras

University Matriculation examination. At the end of the past official year 1870-71, there were 7 Government schools of the higher class, with an average attendance of 895 pupils, and 5 grant-in-aid schools of a similar grade, with an average attendance of 703 scholars; from these schools 126 candidates offered themselves for the First Arts and Matriculation examinations (98 for the Matriculation, and 28 for the First Arts) of whom 8 passed the First Arts, and 24 the Matriculation.

347. Schools of the Middle Class.—In these the following subjects are taught: English, Kanarese, arithmetic up to vulgar and decimal fractions, proportion, &c., geography and history.

There were 10 Government schools of the middle class, with an average attendance of 289, and 9 aided schools of the same grade, with an average attendance of 526.

348. Lower Class Schools.—In these instruction is given in reading, writing, and the elements of arithmetic, all in the vernacular. In the best of these schools an elementary knowledge of geography and history is acquired. These schools are either supported entirely by Government or from the educational cess, or are on the grant-in-aid system.

There were 435 schools of the lower class, with an average attendance of 12,365, and 29 aided schools, with an average attendance of 1,932. Of the lower class schools, those in the talooks take the highest place, as the boys remain for a longer period, and often acquire some knowledge of geography and history. The *hóbli schools are fairly answering the purpose for which they were established. The masters have all been at the Normal Training Schools and passed an examination before receiving their appointments. The attempt to diffuse education through the rural districts by means of these schools has been well seconded by the people themselves, who have in all cases either built or purchased school houses, or else rented suitable premises for the purpose. The general popularity of the schools is also shewn by the fact that all classes are represented in them. In some cases Brahmans are the most numerous; in others the children of laborers; in some schools the boys are all cultivators; in others Lingáyets, goldsmiths and weavers; while many of the schools show a mixture of all classes.

*A Sub-division of a Talook.

349. Grant-in-aid Schools.—The expenditure under this head amounted to Rs. 34,592, distributed in the following proportions amongst the various denominations of schools :—

	Rs.	As.	P.
Protestant.
Church of England	8,820	0	0
Church of Scotland	2,400	0	0
London Mission	2,880	0	0
Wesleyan Mission	6,936	0	0
Roman Catholics	5,520	0	0
Hindu	3,494	0	0

350. Bishop Cotton School.—The first school on the list, which receives the highest grant, is Bishop Cotton School at Bangalore. Owing to changes of head masters this institution did not, at the time of its last inspection, occupy the position it should have attained. None of the candidates sent up for the last University examinations were successful. The attendance of students, which at one period fell off, is understood to have lately increased, and the prospects of the school are now considered to be more promising.

351. St. Andrew's School.—This institution has also very recently come under the charge of a new master. One student succeeded in passing the last Matriculation examination of the Madras University.

352. Mission Schools.—Two candidates from the London Mission Institution were successful at the University examinations,—one in the First Arts, and one in the Matriculation —the former having obtained a place in the first class. In the Wesleyan Native Educational Institution two students passed the F. A. examination, and three matriculated. In the Wesleyan Mission School at Mysore two candidates passed the Matriculation test, and there are three students in the school preparing for the B. A. degree examination.

353. Other Schools.—Of the other schools receiving grants-in-aid, four are Anglo-vernacular; six Kanarese; two Tamil; five Sanskrit; and eighteen Mahomedan.

354. Girls' Schools.—There are also fifteen girls' schools that have grants-in-aid; and the total number of girls under instruction in both Government and aided schools is 2,313.

355. Indigenous Schools.—These are returned as 1,903 in number, with an attendance of 24,864. Most of these schools are very elementary. Some of them have been occasionally visited by the Inspectors or Sub-Deputy Inspectors, and with few exceptions it has been found that the instruction imparted was of the most meagre character, and the attendance very irregular.

356. Girls' Schools.—There are only 5 girls' schools in operation established by Government, with an average attendance of 124. The number might have been increased, if this Department had been in circumstances to afford aid when applications were made from the different localities, where a desire for their establishment had been created. There are also 33 aided schools of this class, with an average attendance of 2,093 pupils. The Inspectors frequently notice that the attention, intelligence and aptitude of the girls are more marked than that of the boys. The native prejudice against female education is daily becoming less.

357. Jail Schools.—The Central Jail and juvenile prison schools number 458 prisoners. In each school there are five classes, which include men in all stages of progress. The most advanced read the Second Book of lessons and Kanarese Arithmetic. The Superintendent of the Central Jail states "that the progress made is very fair, considering the subjects to be operated upon, and that there is no coercion, no prize for the first, and no stimulus for the laggard, and that the teachers (themselves prisoners) are quite untrained."

358. Normal Schools.—There were 4 normal schools, with an average attendance of 137. The one at Bangalore is the General Normal School with a Kanarese and Hindustáni branch attached to it, in which students are trained for appointment as head masters in the talook English and vernacular Government schools. The 3 others are expressly established, one in each Division of the Province, for the training of the "Pantójís" or hóbli school masters. During the past year 130 students obtained certificates and received appointments in Government talook and hóbli schools.

359. Engineering School.—This school was established with a view to provide educated subordinates, especially natives, for the Public Works Department. Two years ago ten scholarships were founded in connection with the school, for the purpose of attracting native students from distant parts of the country; four were assigned to the Ashtagram Division, four to the Nagar, and two to the Nandidroog Division, preference being given to the sons of Mestris or practical workmen. But even this encouragement has not been sufficient to overcome the native repugnance to the active life of an engineer, and the school at present is a failure.

The arrangements required to place this institution on a better footing are under consideration. There were 16 pupils under instruction in it at the close of the official year.

C.—SCIENTIFIC AND LITERARY.

360. MYSORE GOVERNMENT MUSEUM.—In the geological department of the Museum a very complete collection has been formed of the rocks and minerals found throughout the country, and an excellent display is made of its arts and manufactures. The Museum possesses also an admirable collection of specimens of wood, all the more important varieties of timber being represented by longitudinal and cross sections, and the vegetable products of the country are fully exhibited in the several species of grain, pulses, oil, and fibres, &c.

361. The number of visitors has risen from 133,182 in the previous year to 162,135 in the present one,—the daily average being 551. The greatest number in any one day was 16,878, and the least 105.

362. A collection of the minerals usually associated with coal were received, as well as one specimen of gypsum.

363. 13 coins, viz., 1 gold, 4 silver and 8 copper were added during the year.

364. 22 volumes have been added to the library, which now consists of 359 volumes.

365. The cost of this establishment for the past year amounted to Rs. 3,510—2—9, which included salaries, contingencies, purchase of specimens, and furniture.

366. Archæology.—A finely sculptured statue of Vishnu in black marble, 20 feet high, has been recently discovered at a place about 9 miles from Hassan; and also a number of cromlechs on the rising grounds near Hassan.

367. GOVERNMENT BOOK DEPOT.—This establishment is under the control of the Director of Public Instruction. During the year the number of books added to the stock was 36,041, at a cost of Rs. 23,218; of these 12,663 were English books, valued at Rs. 15,322, and 23,378 were vernacular books, valued at Rs. 7,890.

368. The number of books supplied to District Depôts and to head masters for sale was 16,000, valued at Rs. 11,500, shewing that the sales in the branch depôts formed in various parts of the country have increased in a greater ratio than those in the Central Depôt at Bangalore.

369. The amount paid into the Government Treasury on account of the sale proceeds of books during the year was Rs. 19,825.

370. MYSORE GOVERNMENT PRESS.—The following school books in English and Kanarese were published at the Government Press in the course of the year:—

	No.
Fist Book in Kanarese	20,000
Third Book in Kanarese	2,000
First Book in English	10,000
Karnátaka Vágvidháyani	10,000
History of India	5,000
Abridged History of India (in part) ...	2,000
Brief Sketch of History of India ...	5,000
Kanarese and English Dictionary ...	2,000
Elements of Euclid in Kanarese ...	2,000
Kathá Manjari	5,000
Kanarese Arithmetic (in part) ...	5,000
Amara Kósha (in part)	5,000
Second Book in English	2,000

371. Printing Presses.—The number of presses at work in the Province at the close of the year was 13, exclusive of the Central Jail Press at Bangalore. Of these 5 are chiefly for English publications, and the remainder for vernacular literature.

372. Newspapers.—At the close of the year there were only two English and one vernacular newspaper published in the Province. The "Bangalore Herald" and the "Bangalore Spectator," are tri-weekly, and are published in Bangalore, and the "Khasim-ul-Akbar" (in Hindustáni), is published in the same place weekly. The other presses only publish books and do job work. The "Mysore Gazette," published at the Government Press, is an official weekly publication.

373. Registration of Publications.—The number of books registered during the year under Act XXV of 1867 was 73, of these,—

46 were Kanarese.
12 were Hindustáni.
1 was English and Hindustáni.
2 were Sanskrit and Kanarese.
1 was English and Kanarese.
1 was Sanskrit.
1 was Telugu.
1 was Latin and English.
1 was Kanarese and Latin.
7 were English.

PART V.
VITAL STATISTICS.

A.—BIRTHS AND DEATHS.

374. The vital statistics of the Province have been collected under the new forms laid down by the Government of India from the 1st July 1870, and the returns have been continued up to the close of the year.

375. Births.—The total births registered in the Province are 28,456, or including still born 29,178; this gives a per mille rate to the population of 7·1, which is manifestly erroneous.

376. In the Cantonment of Bangalore births have not yet been systematically registered, and in the Province registration is evidently largely evaded.

377. Of the registered live births, 14,826 are males, and 13,630 females, or in the proportion of 100 males to 91·9 females, the annual live births rate deduced from the returns for the six months is 14·2 per mille.

378. Deaths.—The deaths for the Province are 33,948, or in the ratio (for the six months) of 8·25 per mille; the annual death rate is thus 16·50, which, though a considerable increase upon any former reported annual rate, is still, it is believed, considerably below the fact

379. The deaths amongst males are 18,209, and amongst females 15,739, or in the proportion of 100 males to 86·4 females.

380. The mortality by months is as follows:—

Month.	Deaths.	Per Mille Rate.
July	5,797	1·41
August	5,955	1·45
September	5,578	1·36
October	5,272	1·28
November	5,263	1·27
December	6,083	1·48

381. The deaths caused by the following diseases, &c., amounted to 33,948, and are thus distributed :—

By cholera	566
Small-pox	398
Fevers	19,044
Bowel complaints	5,077
Injuries	789
Other causes	8,274
The deaths by injuries are :—
Suicide	67
Wounding	72
Accident	506
Snake-bite, or killed by wild beasts	144

382. The several causes of deaths contributed to the total mortality of each month are as follows.—

	July.	August.	September.	October.	November.	December.
Cholera	122	114	51	29	47	3
Small-pox	103	96	54	60	24	61
Fever	2,953	3,118	2,945	2,955	3,104	3,969
Bowel complaints	1,127	1,012	905	739	641	653
Injuries	126	154	141	119	138	111
Other Causes	1,366	1,461	1,482	1,370	1,209	1,226

383. The deaths by classes are thus returned :—

Classes.	Deaths.	Per Mille Rate.	Annual Rate.
Christians	97	6·63	13·26
Mahomedans ...	1,488	7·94	15·88
Hindús	31,121	8·19	16·38
Other classes ...	1,242	11·64	23·28

384. The above figures are those obtained from the returns, but the death rate so shewn is still, it is believed, much below the real mortality, while the birth rate is quite unreliable.

385. Registration of deaths is clearly largely evaded in some districts, more so than in others; and the results do not at all agree with the generally accepted opinions as to the relative salubrity of the several districts of the Province.

B.—CIVIL HOSPITALS AND DISPENSARIES.

386. The following statement shews the comparative working of the civil hospital and dispensaries (exclusive of special hospitals) during the year under report and that immediately preceding.

		Treated.
		In Hospital.	Out of Hospital.	Died.
1869—70	....	2,711	69,830	267
1870—71	...	3,046	73,494	302

387. The working of the civil hospitals and dispensaries during the year was satisfactory, the total number of patients treated being 76,540, or 4,000 in excess of that of last year; while the death rate amongst in-door patients has fallen from 12·07 to 9·9 per cent. The whole cost of these institutions is at present borne by the State, but it is intended that a fair proportion shall hereafter be provided from municipal or local funds or contributions.

388. Bangalore Pété or Town Hospital.—This institution shews an increase of 25 admissions amongst in-patients, but a decrease of 2,482 in the number of out-patients, which is attributed to an improved state of the public health of the town as compared with the previous year. The average daily sick of in-patients was 52·5, and the average daily attendance of out-patients 101·42; the mortality amongst in-patients was 7·89 per cent.

389. Bowring Civil Hospital at Bangalore.— This institution shews an increase in both the intern and extern departments; in the former to the extent of 70, and in the latter, of 1,091, admissions. The average daily sick of in-patients was 51·5, and of out-patients 88. The mortality amongst in-patients was 12·7 per cent.

390. Mysore Hospital.—The numbers attending this hospital was much the same as last year; the in-patients being 450 or ten less, and the out-patients 23,268 or 177 more; a proportion of the out-patients consists of men of the local troops, who resort freely to this hospital. The average daily attendance of out-patients has averaged 195·5, and 36 have been constantly sick in hospital. The death rate amongst in-patients is 13·3 per cent.

391. Shimoga Hospital.—This hospital shews an increase in both departments, the in-patients from 358 to 394, and out-patients from 4,972 to 5,670. The in-patients have a daily average of 22·25, and the out-door attendance has averaged 64.

392. Hassan Dispensary.—During the year under report this institution only afforded out-door relief. A new hospital is in course of erection, and will be soon opened. The out-patient list has increased from 711 in 1869—70, to 2,306 in 1870—71, and the average daily attendance has been 24·12.

393. Kolár Dispensary.—This also at present affords only out-door relief. It has increased its usefulness during the year, the numbers having risen from 3,191 to 3,721, with an average daily attendance of 38 persons.

394. Toomkoor Dispensary.—This is mostly a dispensary for out-door relief, but exceptional cases are admitted into hospital ; 10 such were treated in 1870—71, against 26 in the previous year. The out-door patients have increased from 2,044 to 2,779; the average daily attendance has been 39·8 : mortality of in-patients 10 per cent.

395. Chiluldroog Dispensary.—During the year under report this institution has afforded in-door relief; 230 persons were treated, and the average daily sick was 8. The out-patient list has increased from 3,549 to 4,604, and the average daily attendance was 845. The mortality amongst in-patients was only 0·43 per cent.

396. Chikkamagalúru Dispensary.—The out-patient list increased from 1848 in 1869—70 to 2,113 in 1870—71, with an average daily attendance of 29·9. A hospital has since been opened for in-patients.

397. Lunatic Asylum at Bangalore.—The number of patients in the asylum has increased from 110 to 124, and the death rate was six per cent of the average strength, which is considerably less than that of the previous year. The expenditure was Rs. 13,464, against Rs. 13,257 in 1869—70, the average annual cost of each lunatic being 116—9—0.

398. Leper Asylum at Bangalore.—The number of patients in the leper asylum has fallen from 43 at the end of the previous year, to 39 at the end of the past year. The death rate during the year was 10 per cent on the total number of inmates. The expenditure was Rs. 1,865, or Rs. 227 less than that of 1869—70.

C.—VACCINATION.

399. The following table shews the results of vaccination in Mysore as compared with the previous year:—

	Total Operations in 1869—70.	Total Operations in 1870—71.	Successful.	Unsuccessful and Unknown.	Increase.	Decrease.	Proportion of successful in 1870—71.
Number ...	93,616	96,570	85,983	10,587	2,954	...	89·03
Cost Rs. ...	10,395	10,746 15/16	...	...	351 15/16	...	...

400. There is an increase of 2,954 operations principally in the Chituldroog District. In the Nandidroog Division only there is a decrease of 978 operations.

401. The population of the Province being 4,106,764, the total operations represent only 2·4 per cent.

402. The proportion of successful to unsuccessful cases or unknown results, is 89·3 per cent, or of failures or unknown results 10·7 per cent; exclusive of "unknown results" the failures are only 5·9 per cent.

403. The cost of the establishment for the year was Rs. 10,746—15—0, or Rs. 351—15—0 in excess of that for 1869—70. The cost of each operation being one anna and 9·3 pies.

404. The vaccine return prescribed by the Statistical Committee is given in Appendix V. C.

PART VI.

MISCELLANEOUS.

405. The Anché or Local Post Expenditure.—The total cost of the Anché or Local Post Department amounted to Rs. 1,51,102—14—6, against Rs. 1,45,151—3—5 in the preceding year, shewing an increase of Rs. 5,951—11—1, owing principally to additional establishments caused by the opening of two new post offices and certain changes and extensions of postal lines.

406. Income.—Taking credit for the postage exempted on service and franked letters, letters carried to and from Her Majesty's post offices, Gazette copies and parcels, &c., the following statement exhibits a surplus of Rs. 96,558—4—0 in favor of the Department, against Rs. 1,07,455 in 1869—70.

	Rs.	A.	P.
Amount of Postage on Service letters	1,51,608	4	0
" " on parcels	40,546	5	0
" On letters, &c., carried to and from Her Majesty's Post Office	10,255	10	0
" On letters of His Highness the Rája's Dept.	43	0	0
" On Gazettes	1,367	13	0
" On franked letters and parcels ...	2,530	11	0
Total.....	2,06,351	11	0
Amount of Postage collected in Cash	41,309	7	6
Total.....	2,47,661	2	6
Deduct Expenditure.....	1,51,102	14	6
Balance Rs...	96,558	4	0

407. Correspondence.—The total number of packets that passed through the anché offices was 2,323,731, being 45,962 less than for the year 1869—70.

Subjoined is a detail of the above number :—

	1870—71.
Chargeable packets	9,31,822
Service do	10,44,438
Franked do	18,937
His Highness the Rája's Department	327
Carried to and from Her Majesty's Post Office	3,28,199
Total.....	23,23,734

The above figures compared with the returns of 1869—70 shew a falling off under franked packets, on account of the privilege granted to Officers of the Commission of franking private letters and parcels being cancelled. The increase shewn against letters carried to and from Her Majesty's post office is owing to the closing of the imperial post offices at Toomkoor, Chituldroog, Harihara and Shimoga.

408. Unclaimed Letters.—The number of unclaimed letters has considerably decreased, being 130, against 1,026 in the preceding year.

409. THE GOVERNMENT TELEGRAPH.—There are only two telegraph offices in the Province, one at Bangalore, and the other at the Town of Mysore.

410. MUNICIPALITIES.—Regularly organized Municipalities have now been established in most of the chief towns of the Province, and Boards have been formed, consisting of the most influential European and native members of the community under the presidency of a Government official selected by the Chief Commissioner. In Bangalore where municipal operations are conducted on a large scale, and require special attention, the President is a paid officer, and has no other duty to perform; but in the other municipalities no salary is attached to the office of President, one of the officials of the station undertaking the charge in addition to his other duties. In the smaller towns, where it has been found difficult to constitute regular boards, municipal regulations have, with great advantage, been introduced and enforced through the agency of the Revenue Officers.

411. In all the municipalities, the boards are responsible for the sanitary condition of the towns, for the state of the public thoroughfares, the proper conservancy of reservoirs, latrines, &c; and under their management all works of improvement or maintenance within municipal limits are carried out. Funds for these purposes are obtained chiefly from octroi duties levied by the boards on articles selected by them, with the consent of the Local Administration, the selection being restricted to such as are imported for home consumption. In some instances the octroi alone having been found insufficient to meet all requirements, the Mohatarfa or house tax, which was formerly appropriated to the general revenue, has been added to the municipal income, the municipalities in such cases undertaking the payment of the Town Police.

412. In a few of the towns objections having been raised to all octroi duties, it has been found better to substitute therefor a lightly assessed house tax.

413. Full details for each municipality are given in the Appendices, III. B, 2 and 3.

414. Details of Municipal Operations.—The outlay on municipal work in the taluok municipalities of the Nandidroog Division amounted to Rs. 16,563—15—7, as follows:—

	Rs.	As.	P.
Bangalore	4,236	3	6
Kolár	5,053	2	0
Toomkoor	7,244	10	1
	16,563	15	7

This sum was devoted to various improvements, such as construction of drains in Kasabá towns, the erection of cattle pounds, opening new roads, cleaning out wells, repairing drains, and widening narrow streets, and compensation for land taken up for municipal purposes.

415. In the Ashtagram Division, regular municipalities are formed only in the towns of Mysore, Hassan, Hunasúru and Seringapatam. The expenditure under the heads of buildings, communications, sewage, water supply, miscellaneous and establishment, were as follows:—

	Rs.
Mysore	46,145
Hassan	4,558
Seringapatam	1,050
Hunasúru	1,659

416. In the Nagar Division, municipalities have been established at Shimoga, Chituldroog, and Chikkamagalúru, the expenditure from the Budget grants for these three head quarter towns of districts was as follows:—

	Budget Grant. Rs.	Expenditure. Rs	As.	P.
Shimoga	13,634	9,578	7	3
Chituldroog	1,764	1,498	14	8
Chikkamagalúru ...	5,540	5,039	0	0

Municipalities, with a small sanitary establishment, have been organized at the following kasabá towns of taluoks:—

Ságara, Hosnáli, Nyámti, Chennagiri, Shikáripura, Soraba Thírthahalli, Anantapura, Tarikere, Kadoor, Bánávára, Bíruru, Dávanagere and Harihara.

417. The municipal operations of the Town and Cantonment of Bangalore are noticed in Part III, Section B, Public Works.

A. PHYSICAL GEOGRAPHY OF THE TERRITORIES UNDER THE CIVIL AND POLITICAL CONTROL OF THE ADMINISTRATION OF MYSORE.

Mysore is situated between 11°36′ and 15°0′ north latitude and 74°42′ and 78°37′ east longitude. Its extreme breadth from east to west is 250 miles, and its extreme length from north to south is 190 miles. Its area is 27,004 square miles. It is bounded on the north by the Bombay Collectorate of Dharwar and the Madras Collectorate of Bellary. On the south by the Districts of Salem and Coimbatore, both in the Madras Presidency. On the east by those of Cuddapa and North Arcot, also of Madras. On the west by Coorg and the Western Ghâts, which shut out Mysore from Malabar and Canara on the West coast.

The Province was surveyed for revenue purposes during the administration of Purnaiya between 1800 and 1810, and a topographical survey was carried out by Colonel Mackenzie in the years 1800—1807. A revenue survey on the Bombay system including the classification and assessment of the land, is now in progress.

I. A.—2. Character of the Surface.

Nature of different Tracts.	Names, Area, and Physical Description of each Tract.	Where situated, in British or Native Territory.	Prevailing Soils, Minerals and Products.
Mountains and Elevated Tracts.	The Mysore country above the ghâts is often called "the Table Land," a denomination very little descriptive of its appearance, as it is by no means plain or flat, but in some parts mountainous, and everywhere undulating. The Eastern Ghâts form the frontier, by which it is separated from the Carnatic. They constitute the exterior of the east ranges of hills, which run along the whole length of the Peninsula from Cape Comorin, stretching up to the continent of Asia. In many parts the ascent over them into Mysore is very high and difficult, while in others it is more sloping and protracted. The country rises gradually from these ghâts towards Bangalore, which is situated in the most elevated portion of the Mysore plateau, and is 3,031 feet above the sea level.		The soils, in order of their prevailing kinds, are as follow:— 1. Red soil mixed with loam and vegetable mould. 2. Inferior red sandy soil. 3. Black cotton, free from stones. 4. Stony and gravelly soil. 5. Rich garden soil. 6. White stiff loam. 7. Black cotton, but light and stony. 8. Soil impregnated with salt. The great rock, which may be said to constitute the basis of the whole country, is a kind of granite composed for the most part of four different ingredients, viz., quartz, felspar, hornblende and mica. The quartz has usually a dull grey or white color, and veins of it from 4 to 10 inches thick often traverse the rock in different directions. The felspar varies in color from a silver white to a deep brick red, and is the most copious constituent of the rock. The hornblende is black, very abundant, and very much given to decomposition. The mica is easily distinguished from the hornblende, even when the stone is nearly in a state of disintegration. The hornblende in that state has assumed a brown ochre color, and has lost all lustre and cohesion, while the mica retains both its color, lustre and cohesion to the last, and becomes only more apparent by the progress of disintegration. This is particularly exemplified in the Mysore country, where the undulating high ground consists of granite, decomposed into gravelly, but crumbled with micaceous shining particles and grains of quartz. From the structure of the country, which is entirely primitive, no coals could be expected.
Plains.	The descent from Bangalore on all sides is perceptible though not rapid. On the north-west after passing the Chitaldroog range of hills, there is a gradual fall through the broad valley which leads to the river Tungabhadra, near which is the station of Harihara, probably the lowest point in Mysore, its altitude above the sea being only 1,600 feet. To the south-west and west, by Seringapatam and Hassan, there is perhaps a more marked descent until it is abruptly terminated by the western range of ghâts comprising in this direction the Nilgiri and Coorg hills and further north, the Manjarabad and Nagar ranges. A marked feature of the country is the number of isolated hills called Durgas, on the most inaccessible of which the former Palegars or petty chiefs built forts, afterwards in many instances strengthened and improved by Hyder and Tipu, and still in good preservation, but now without guns.		Chlorite slate is found near Sira, and fine for slate in the neighbourhood of Chitaldroog. Other minerals are the following:— Clay Iron Stone. Schorl in Quartz. Mica Slate.
Forests	The principal forests are found clothing the sides of the Western Mountains. They abound in teak, blackwood and other valuable kinds of timber. There are no forests in the Eastern Ghâts. Sandalwood grows in the country bordering the hills.

Rivers.

The Tungá and Bhadra rise in the north west of Mysore, and uniting form the Tungabhadra, which flows eastwards and eastwards till it joins the Kṛishna below Kurnool. The banks of the Tungabhadra are too high for irrigation purposes. The Kāvēri rises in Coorg and passes through and out of Mysore in a south-easterly direction, after receiving the Hēmāvati, the Lōkani, the Shimsha, and the Arkāvati from the north, and the Lakshmanatīrtha and the Kabbani from the south. The Kāvēri and its tributaries supply numerous irrigation channels and tanks. The Pennair, the Palar and Ponnaiyar in the eastern part of Mysore, in their short course through which, their waters are dried up and converted into chains of tanks. They become large rivers before they reach the sea.

None of these rivers are suitable for navigation.

Lakes.

There are no natural Lakes in Mysore; but there are nearly 20,000 artificial reservoirs, some of which are of considerable magnitude.

Marshes.

None of any consequence.

Magnetic Iron Stone.
Pot Stone.
Actinolite.
Lignitorm Asbestos.
Brown Spar.
Common Salt.
Carbonate of Soda.
Gold is occasionally found near Bēlmangala, by washing the alluvial soil; but in too small quantities to repay labor.
The chief products are:—
Paddy.
Rāgi—The principal food of the people.
Buller—A kind of small bean.
Gram.
Wheat.
Millet.
Oil Seeds.
Sugar-cane.
Cotton.
Hemp.
Tobacco.
